TOLL OF FOREST FIRES MAY REACH FORTY-SIX

Discovery of More Unidentified Bodies in Afflicted District of Northern Ontario Raises Number—Pathetic Case of Young Girl Left Alone

Gervis M. Sutherland Loses Life for Others

COBALT, Ont., Oct. 9.—Discovery of two unidentified bodies in Hilliard township, east of Earlton, has brought the known death toll of last week's terrible forest fire to forty-four, with the probability that this figure will be exceeded when the full truth is known.

Dr. F. W. Rontley, director of the Canadian Red Cross, says that thirty-five bodies have been found between New Liskeard and Charlton, and eleven in the Haileybury district.

L. Killaran, aged 16, reported missing for several days, is now believed to have been burned in Holy Cross Cathedral. A. St. George, a White River farmer, who saw the walls of the cathedral fall on his own wife, says young Killaran was also in the cathedral.

HELD YESTERDAY

Centennial Methodist Church Packed
—Many Ministers Take Part in the Service

Centennial Methodist Church was filled to overflowing yesterday afternoon, when funeral rites were held for the late Rev. J. L. Batty, pastor of the church for the last three and a half years. In the congregation were representatives of many of the other churches of the city as well, while several of the patriotic and benevolent organizations of Victoria were also represented.

The service at the church was preceded by brief rites at the family residence, David Street, where Rev. Robert Wilkinson, of Vancouver, conducted prayers, two o'clock, while an hour later services in the crowded edifice began. Rev. A. Cook and Rev. Lashley Hall, B.A., B.D., delivering short addresses, they paid tribute to the outstanding character, courage and humanity of the late Mr. Batty. Other ministers who took part in the services included Rev. J. W. Sweeney, B.A., B.D., Rev. W. H. Wilson, D.D., and Rev. C. M. Tate. The hymns sung were "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er," "We Know the Way to the Kingdom," and "Servant of God, Well Done." The closing prayer was delivered by Rev. Dr. Daly.

Among the various organizations with which Mr. Batty had been actively associated during his pastorate here were the Centennial Association, represented by Rev. W. G. Wilson and Rev. Robert Connell; the Royal Society of St. George, of which he had been a chaplain, and which placed its banner on the altar; Orange Lodge No. 1610, and the Sons of England, each of which sent very large representations to pay their last respects to a highly esteemed member. Alderman Harvey represented the city as acting mayor.

A long cortege of carriages followed the hearse to the cemetery, where a large congregation took part in the committal service. Mr. T. Palmer, motor police officer, presided over the procession to the cemetery, where a large congregation took part in the committal service. Mr. T. Palmer, motor police officer, presided over the procession to the cemetery, where a large congregation took part in the committal service.

VANCOUVER DEALS WITH B.C. ELECTRIC

Arrangements Made as to Service in Various Departments, Subject to Approval of City Council

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 9.—An amicable settlement of matters in dispute between the city of Vancouver and the B. C. Electric Railway Co. is likely to be reached following an offer made by the company to the city, which has met with the approval of the special committee conducting negotiations for the city, and was submitted to the city council for approval this afternoon. Under this settlement the city will receive:

A light rate of five cents, instead of six cents.

Repayment of certain streets by the company.

Reduction in rates for gas, as soon as certain extensions are effected in the existing gas plant.

Agreement by the company in regard to several engineering matters in compliance with demands of the city engineer.

On its part the city agrees to:

Extension of the existing six-cent fare for a period of five years.

To enter into arbitration with the company every three years in regard to any matter in dispute, the arbitrators to be appointed, one by the city, one by the company, and the two to appoint the third member.

These are the outstanding points of the tentative agreement, which it is stated, will meet the approval of the majority of the city council.

TOKIO UNIVERSITY SUFFERS BY FIRE

TOKIO, Oct. 9.—Fire today destroyed the chemical laboratory of the Imperial University with all its instruments and books. The loss is estimated at 2,000,000 yen. The mills and warehouses of the Japanese Flour Milling Company, near Tokyo, also were burned, with estimated damage of 3,500,000 yen.

IRISH REGULAR TROOPS TAKE REBEL LEADER

Tom Barry Captured in County Cork Skirmish—Richard Mulcahy Hints at Conciliation

BELFAST, Oct. 9.—National army troops who encountered a party of republicans at a skirmish in County Cork, took among other prisoners, Tom Barry, one of the best-known republican leaders.

DUBLIN, Oct. 9.—The possibility of conciliation in Ireland is considered in some quarters to have been forecast by Richard Mulcahy, the commander-in-chief, during a speech to division of the troops at Gormanstown yesterday.

"We in the Irish army look forward to our being a national organization through which the young nation of Ireland will pass out of the space of time and then will pass out much better men and better citizens," he said, "having during their period in the army done some useful constructive work for their country as well as having skilled themselves in the use of arms."

THREATS MADE BY GREEK ARMY

Military Dictator Promises
Trouble for Reactionaries—
Thracians Send Message to British Public

ATHENS, Oct. 9.—Attempts by reactionaries to make capital out of the loss of Thrace will be met, if necessary, by force, it is declared by Col. Gonatas, who is the military dictator of the new Greek government.

He announced before a meeting of the Commercial Association of Athens that the army was ready to take measures to protect the national unity and integrity of the country.

"The revolution was achieved peacefully," he said, "but the army has been forced to take decisions against those who seek to exploit the loss of Thrace by discrediting the revolution, which came too late to save Thrace from a tragic fate."

The Greek members of the Chamber of Deputies have sent a statement to the British press, declaring that if the British people believe the entry of the Turks into Europe will assure peace, they are suffering from a lamentable illusion.

The Thracians predict that before many months the British and French mandates for Palestine, Mesopotamia and Syria will be challenged, the Egyptian question reopened, and the Greek claims in regard to the Aegean Sea will be renewed. They declare that in avoiding armed conflict today the Thracians are merely postponing the inevitable.

EX-KAISER'S BRIDE TO BECOME QUEEN

Announcement Made at Preliminary
Reception by British Pair—
Helm in Good Spirit

DOORN, Holland, Oct. 9.—The bride of former Emperor William, the Princess of Reuss, will assume the title of "Queen Wilhelmina of Prussia" on the 10th inst. An announcement made today, during a preliminary reception to friends of the bride and groom at the castle here.

The ex-Kaiser was attired in his favorite uniform of a high admiral's fleet, with his breast covered with a multitude of pre-war decorations and his left sleeve showed the mourning band.

The registry book was signed by hundreds of visitors.

According to the present arrangements, the marriage ceremony on November 5 will take place in the chapel of the castle. This will be in harmony with Dutch laws.

The ex-Kaiser showed many courtesies to the guests. He seemed to be in high good humor, entertaining the company with many anecdotes.

"I shall soon be the happiest man in the world," he said, and then added gallily:

"No longer will I be called the solitary exile of Doorn."

The Princess of Reuss appeared equally happy.

The only other member of the Hohenzollern family present was the ex-Emperor's fourth son, August Wilhelm, who arrived in the afternoon. The ceremony was attended by a large number of German professors, former generals, court officials, members of the nobility and the wives, including Count von Moltke, together with several Dutch professors and many members of the Dutch nobility. The castle was adorned with garlands of flowers, which were arriving daily, the gifts of admirers and friends of the ex-Emperor in many parts of the world.

CHINA APPOINTS COMMISSIONER IN B.C.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 9.—Lee Kee, of Vancouver, announces that he has been appointed by the Chinese government a commissioner to investigate conditions among the Chinese residents in British Columbia.

The actual number of his fellow-countrymen living here is yet to be ascertained officially by the Chinese authorities, he says, and he will send to China an exhaustive report on living conditions and treatment accorded Chinese generally in British Columbia.

Lee Kee has lived in Vancouver 34 years.

LIQUOR DISCOVERED ON REFUGEE VESSEL

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The first seizure of liquor aboard a U. S. Ship, says Hearst, was made yesterday by agents who visited the freighter Winona, arriving from Smyrna after evacuating refugees from the ruined city.

Four cases of whisky and a number of loose bottles were taken from the vessel. The vessel's officers said they could not account for the presence of the liquor, and that it probably had been brought aboard by refugees.

MAKES ANSWER TO LABOR MEN

Premier Lloyd George Publishes Reply to Deputations
That Waited on Him With Protests Against War

SHOWS ACTION IN LINE WITH LABOR'S POLICY

Government's Great Aim Is to Prevent Spread of Warfare
From Asia Minor to European Areas

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Government tonight issued a report on the conference which the Labor deputations had with Premier Lloyd George on September 21, hitherto kept secret. The Prime Minister, in replying to the deputations' "stop the war" protests, the report indicates, devoted his speech mainly to proving that the Government policy had been identical with that long advocated by the Labor party, namely, maintenance of the freedom of the Straits under control of the League of Nations, and that subject populations in Anatolia could not be left under control of the Turks. But he regretted that this policy became impossible because the United States, France and Italy, had declined to undertake the necessary mandates in these regions.

The Prime Minister argued that under the present position the Straits would be the same as in 1914, when the Turks closed the Straits, therefore, even control by the League of Nations would be useless unless an adequate force was planted there by the League to see that the Straits were kept neutralized. He contended that the Kemal Government had given no undertaking to do anything more than to offer a verbal guarantee of the freedom of the Straits, and declared:

Mr. Lloyd George pointed out that the League of Nations could not be a League of Nations come from other nations, not England.

Asked whether freedom of the Straits meant fortification, the Premier replied that that would be for the League to decide. He also added that the League would not interfere with the Straits either by Great Britain or any other nation.

"Otherwise," he added, "that is not internationalization."

On the general question, the Prime Minister reiterated that the Government policy was to prevent the war from spreading into Europe, and he contended that the League of Nations would already taken, and intended to continue to take, were the best means of prevention.

Mr. Lloyd George said that the British Government had ever given either money or arms to the Greeks; on the contrary, it had warned them that if they went to Smyrna that they were going "entirely on their own responsibility and at their own expense."

They were told also—"We cannot supply you, or take the responsibility."

The Prime Minister said all he was now doing was to treat the Turks and Greeks alike in regard to the neutral zone which the British were holding for the Allies, and it was imperative until a peace conference was held to prevent war from spreading to Europe, that the British Government should remain neutral.

"The one chance of stopping the war is for Kemal to know that we are not going to be turned out of the Straits. If he knows that, he won't go there. If he believes that our nation is divided and that he is getting encouragement to go on he will be very likely to pursue a warlike policy."

The Times, in its main editorial, is chiefly concerned in eulogizing Lord Curzon for his successful efforts in Paris. These efforts, with Bonar Law's recent letter in the Times upholding the British Government's attitude in the Near Eastern crisis, the Times thinks, will produce a change in the direction of greater confidence and more efficient concord between Great Britain and France.

The final sentence in the Times' leading article depreciates the demand for the immediate withdrawal of Liberal ministers of the Government from office. The country's main interest, it says, is the pursuance of peace through Allied co-operation.

The Daily Telegraph does not mention the Premier's position, but says that public opinion is in entire agreement with Bonar Law's declaration concerning the impossibility of Great Britain policing the whole world.

The Morning Post is gleefully sarcastic about Mr. Garvin's suggestion, "who has for years played the part of charwoman at Downing Street," it says.

SAYS PEOPLE MUST GIVE WAR DECISION

Chief Consideration of Great Britain's Foreign Policy Must Be Reconciliation With Late Enemies

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Sir Donald Maclean, member of the House of Commons for Peebles and Southern, presiding at a meeting of the Scottish Liberal Association at Dumfries, said that during the last few weeks the country had had an exhibition of the active war mind in the Government, which had brought the country twice at least on the verge of war. It was the people, not governments, who fought wars, and no shot must be fired without the full consent of the people, as represented in parliament assembled.

A resolution was unanimously passed by the gathering urging as the cardinal consideration in Great Britain's foreign policy reconciliation with her late enemies, and the establishment of friendly relations with all peoples, and the amendment of the peace treaties in accordance therewith.

CONTRACTOR KING DIES AT VANCOUVER

VANCOUVER, Oct. 9.—Frederick Thomas King, 52, one of the city's best-known contractors, died suddenly Sunday morning at St. Paul's Hospital. After suffering from diabetes for some time he was taken to the hospital on Saturday and conveyed from his room at the University Club to the hospital. The late Mr. King was a member of the firm of Hodgson, King & Macdonald, a native of Newport, Monmouthshire, England.

Mr. King was president of the Master Builders' Association, vice-president of the Maritime Provinces Association of British Columbia, and a member of the Board of Trade.

Italy Seeks Islands

ROME, Oct. 9.—Foreign Minister Schanzer has denounced the Italian-Greek agreement of August, 1922, which gave the Greeks sovereignty over the Dodecanese Islands in the Aegean Sea long claimed by Italy.

Agreement of Allies Weakens Confidence Of the Kemalist Party

CALIFORNIAN FLEECE BY "FAKE" RACE TRICK

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 9.—A. J. Anderson, who said he was a farmer from Turlock, California, reported to the Omaha police today that he believed he had been swindled out of $7,400 through a fake race horse time-lapping scheme operated at Vancouver, B.C. He said he was to have met in Omaha to receive his winnings two men whom he had turned over his money in Vancouver several weeks ago, but that so far he had been unable to find them.

One of the men, according to Anderson, introduced himself in Vancouver as "Charles Anderson," a Minnesota farmer, who told him he was earning more money through the race horse scheme than by farming. Anderson said that the $7,400 represented $1,400 in savings and $6,000 he obtained by mortgaging his farm.

MR. GARVIN GETS SMALL SUPPORT

Few Morning Newspapers Join in His Cry for Extinction of Premier Lloyd George—
Morning Post Sarcastic

LONDON, Oct. 9.—J. L. Garvin, editor of The London Observer, in a five-column article in today's issue, tells why he is done with the present ministry. Garvin has long been one of Britain's most arresting writers, and the present Government has owed a good deal to his support in times past, but yesterday he let himself go in his best style against the Government, particularly in regard to its Eastern policy, from which, it seems, the editor of The Observer has dissociated himself for the last two years.

From no conceivable point of view, writes Garvin, could the Government's Eastern policy be considered an informed or competent policy.

Lloyd George, after Constantinople's return, not only backed the wrong horse, but backed a dead one.

The lessons of history showed that Greece alone could never establish a solid footing in Asia Minor, yet the Government went on jeopardizing Britain's whole Eastern interests for the sake of Constantinople's dead horse.

"Nothing remains," continued The Observer, "but with gradual patience and good sense to repair as much of the damage as may be done. We must first try to work with France and Italy and others, if we can indeed arrive at any firm compromise. If not, we must secure by such independent negotiations as may be in our power a complete political peace both in Turkey and Russia."

Gets Little Support

Few of the morning papers take up the cry of J. L. Garvin, editor of The Sunday Observer, for Premier Lloyd George's extinction as Premier, with any great vehemence.

The Times, in its main editorial, is chiefly concerned in eulogizing Lord Curzon for his successful efforts in Paris. These efforts, with Bonar Law's recent letter in the Times upholding the British Government's attitude in the Near Eastern crisis, the Times thinks, will produce a change in the direction of greater confidence and more efficient concord between Great Britain and France.

The final sentence in the Times' leading article depreciates the demand for the immediate withdrawal of Liberal ministers of the Government from office. The country's main interest, it says, is the pursuance of peace through Allied co-operation.

The Daily Telegraph does not mention the Premier's position, but says that public opinion is in entire agreement with Bonar Law's declaration concerning the impossibility of Great Britain policing the whole world.

GO TO ANGORA ASSEMBLY

MUDANIA, Oct. 9.—Ismet Pasha will lay the Allied demands before the Angora Assembly, and in the meantime the conference stands adjourned.

The conference met at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the Allies presented their three demands—withdrawal of Turkish troops in neutral zones, limitation of Turkish gendarmes in Thrace, and non-occupation of Thrace by the Turks until after signing of the peace treaty. There was a long discussion on the question of evacuation and the various phases of the Thracian problem.

When it became evident that Ismet Pasha did not have the necessary power to decide definitely on these demands the Allied representatives made preparations for their departure.

MISSION TO THRACE

ADRIANOPLE, Oct. 9.—An Allied military mission has arrived here and will spend three days before proceeding to visit the countryside by automobile. The mission consists of three officers, French, British and Italian, and the chairman is a French colonel, Colonel Dufoulon, by virtue of seniority.

The mission's errand, as defined by the Allied high commissioners, is to reassure the population, investigate alleged excesses, prevent disturbance and report any evidence of incendiarism, pillaging or unreasonable requisitioning. Similar missions have arrived in the past week at Rodosto and Lule Burgas.

ORDERED TO RETIRE

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Concerning the violation of the neutral zone in the Levant region by the Nationalists, the British Government has given to understand that the Turkish command had sent orders to the local commander to retire.

A Central News despatch from Constantinople says that owing to the strong press protests, General Harington has given orders for the admission of newspaper correspondents to the Mudania conference. A number of correspondents have already started.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 9.—Naval action in the Bosphorus, which was suspended by the British on Sunday as a result of the Turkish incursion into the neutral zones, was re-established this morning.

INSTRUCTIONS FROM PARIS

PARIS, Oct. 9.—Premier Poincaré sent supplementary instructions to Gen. Fais, the French High Commissioner at Constantinople today with the object of clearing up such misunderstandings as might exist in Mudania concerning the definition of the new neutral zones and the number of Turkish gendarmes to be sent to Syria.

Realization Comes That Plans for Dividing European Nations Have Failed—Greek Delegates Fall Into Line With Other Three Powers and Promise Support

TROOPS IN THRACE WILL AID BRITAIN

Allied Generals Return to Constantinople to Await Decision of Angora Assembly as to Demands Sent—Ismet Pasha Left Without Power to Decide

MUDANIA, Oct. 9.—There was distinctly less confidence in the Kemalist camp here today when it became thoroughly understood that there is now complete unanimity among the Allies. The plans for dividing the Allies having failed, it was realized that Kemal Pasha had the world arrayed against him.

The Greek delegates also came into line with the three Allied powers, Colonel Mazarakis informing General Harington that Greece would "conform to whatever measures the Allied generals recommend." He also assured the commander-in-chief that in case of necessity "the whole Greek army in Thrace will rally to the support of Great Britain."

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 9.—The Allied generals, Harington, Mombelli and Charpy, returned to Constantinople late this afternoon. The Mudania conference has been adjourned to permit Kemalists to refer the Allied demands to the Angora Assembly.

Conference Delayed

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Government is still awaiting news from the Mudania conference and the result of the orders Kemal Pasha is reported to have given for the retirement of Turkish troops from the neutral zones, or to such new lines in those zones as may be agreed upon.

The cabinet council today had little to do beyond hearing a report of Lord Curzon's mission to Paris and discussing purely provisional arrangements for a peace conference, should the Mudania meeting prove successful. It is understood that some delay at Mudania arose from rough certain differences in wording of other indefiniteness in the instructions conveyed to the British and French delegates.

The national council, representing the whole Labor party, met today to consider the Near Eastern situation, and passed a resolution expressing lack of confidence in the Government's policy and demanding the immediate resignation of the Government and the election of a new Parliament.

Go to Angora Assembly

MUDANIA, Oct. 9.—Ismet Pasha will lay the Allied demands before the Angora Assembly, and in the meantime the conference stands adjourned.

The conference met at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the Allies presented their three demands—withdrawal of Turkish troops in neutral zones, limitation of Turkish gendarmes in Thrace, and non-occupation of Thrace by the Turks until after signing of the peace treaty. There was a long discussion on the question of evacuation and the various phases of the Thracian problem.

When it became evident that Ismet Pasha did not have the necessary power to decide definitely on these demands the Allied representatives made preparations for their departure.

UNVEILS MEMORIAL TO NEW ZEALANDERS

PARIS, Oct. 9.—Sir Francis Bell, Attorney-General of New Zealand, on Saturday at Longueval, in the Somme district, unveiled a memorial to the New Zealand Division, which won fame on the Somme front in 1916.

The monument is situated about one mile from the village, upon a height dominating the battlefield. It is in the form of a pyramid standing in an enclosed garden. The inscription is headed:

"From the uttermost parts of the earth."

Sir Francis Bell, when unveiling the monument, expressed the hope that it would remind posterity of the Anglo-French alliance, which had preserved freedom and could alone maintain and defend freedom in the future.

CHINESE PRISONER'S STRATAGEM

MONTREAL, Oct. 9.—A Chinese prisoner entered the Bordeaux prison today and was bathed and his clothes searched. His necktie seemed somewhat bulky and Governor Napoleon Seguin opened it. From the necktie rolled some twenty pennies, apparently stolen, for they were covered with a crystalline dust. An analysis showed the pennials had been soaked in opium, then dried, leaving the residue on the nuts.

PREMIER'S TRIBUTE TO FORMER MINISTER

Endeavor to Discharge Obligations Impaired Health and Brought Life to an Early Close

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.—A tribute to the worth of Hon. J. A. Stewart, whose death occurred in Montreal Saturday, Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Premier of Canada, says:

"Members of the House of Commons will mourn with sorrow over the loss the Parliament of Canada has sustained in the death of the Hon. J. A. Stewart, ex-Minister of Railways and Canada."

"Mr. Stewart possessed qualities and attainments of the highest character, which won for him the admiration and regard of his political opponents, as well as the members of the party to which he belonged. There can be little doubt that his sense of public duty and his endeavor to faithfully discharge the obligations of his position were responsible in no inconsiderable degree for the impaired health which brought his life so quickly to a close. Members of the Government join with the citizens of Canada generally in extending profound sympathy to Mrs. Stewart in her bereavement."

The Prime Minister also sent a personal message of sympathy to Mrs. Stewart.

URGE PREMIER TO LEAVE POST

London Weekly Newspapers
Join Campaign Against Mr.
Lloyd George—Colleague
Defends His Course

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The latter phase of the Near East crisis has been marked by the growth of a political and newspaper campaign against Mr. Lloyd George, British Prime Minister, which reached its climax when the four leading weekly reviews and one of the Premier's staunchest supporters among the Sunday newspapers joined in a demand for his resignation. The basis for the charges against Lloyd George is that his strong pro-Greek policy brought the nation to the brink of war, which was only averted in the first place through the statesmanship and diplomacy of Lord Curzon, the Foreign Secretary, who emerged from the alleged prolonged eclipse from which the Foreign Office has suffered through the Premier retaining in his own hands all the threads of British foreign policy, and secured an agreement with France on a Near Eastern policy; and in the second place through the moderation and tact displayed by Brigadier-General Hamilton in his dealings with the Kemalists.

Basis of Charges

The gravamen of the charge against Lloyd George, or rather against the alleged war party in the cabinet, led by Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies, is that it has involved the country, at a moment of great difficulty, in the useless expenditure of between £20,000,000 and £30,000,000 for war expenditure in the Dardanelles.

In the words of the Outlook, it has ensured the triumph of France over Great Britain and caused the humiliation of Great Britain before the Moslems, while France poses as the protector of the faithful, who bullied Great Britain into accepting humiliations that no great power within the past century has peacefully endured.

Amid the chorus of protests against Lloyd George's cabinet secretarial usurpation of the duties of the Foreign Office, moderate organs like The Spectator and The Observer are heard urging the Premier's friends to tell Mr. Lloyd George he can best serve his country by resigning.

Defended by Lord Beaverbrook

Lord Beaverbrook, writing in his own paper, The Sunday Express, says Bonar Law is the first man of high political rank since 1918 to come forward and say definitely that the British Empire ought, in certain circumstances, to leave Europe alone and concentrate on the home front and on the development of the British Empire. "I welcome this policy," writes Lord Beaverbrook. "I admire Bonar Law's courage, but I was greatly surprised when I read his letter in The Sunday Times."

"While admitting that our own policy has not been free from short-sightedness and vacillations that are difficult to excuse and impossible to justify, Britain, at least, has not been unfaithful to either the spirit or letter of the Anglo-French Entente."

Lord Beaverbrook alleges that French diplomacy has been selfish, destructive and anti-European, and adds: "Nobody here wants to see the Entente dissolved, but how is it possible to work with France when she leaves to us the sole responsibility of giving effect to decisions jointly adopted?"

War Secretary's Verdict

In a speech at Colchester Saturday, Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Secretary for War, said he did not propose to defend the Government's policy in the Near East. There would be a better occasion, when the full facts would be disclosed. He had no fear of the country's verdict. It would be seen that the Government had acted cautiously and firmly, without provocation, and with a sincere desire to avoid war.

The Government, he continued, had two objects in view, namely, to maintain the freedom of the straits and also to prevent, if possible, the Turco-Greek war being pursued in Europe. The Government had acted throughout with impartial neutrality. They stood with their Allies in preventing the Greeks from menacing Constantinople in August last, and are now seeking with their Allies a means of protecting the Christian minorities in Eastern Thrace from the horrors of war. The Government was prepared to defend the positions now occupied at the Dardanelles, not with any selfish motive, but in order that the League of Nations or some other international body should find them open, and not closed by Turkish guns, when the time came for a permanent arrangement to be made.

Meanwhile, his military advisers had told him that with the reinforcements already sent, the British positions in Chanak and Gallipoli were safe. British troops were not there to attack the Turks, but could and would defend themselves if attacked. He was sure the chances of averting war in Europe had been immensely improved by the firm and prompt action of the Government.

BANK ROBBERS MORE DARING

Series of Manitoba and Saskatchewan Hold-Ups Followed by Daylight Robbery by Masked Bandit

WINNIPEG, Oct. 9.—A masked robber entered the Altona, Man., branch of the Bank of Montreal at noon today, locked the manager and junior clerk in the vault, unlocked the teller's cage, scooped up $2,300 in notes and coins, and fled in a waiting automobile, which was standing in a lane at the rear of the building. Three other men were in the car, which bore no license number.

BEGGARS COME BACK WHEN TRADE RESUMES

Moscow's Mendicants Celebrate Revival of Trade Under the Soviet Regime

MOSCOW, Oct. 9.—The beggars of Moscow have been enjoying resumption of free trade under the Soviet regime nearly as much as the profiteers and speculators.

A year or so ago, when the Government declared everything to be everybody's, the aristocrat and the beggar alike, and money was of very little use, mendicants virtually disappeared from all their haunts at the various street corners. But with the reopening of trade, and when the daily parade of shoppers began anew, the beggars returned, and apparently brought a lot of relatives and friends with them.

The professional beggars of Moscow are a happy lot when off duty. They congregate in vacant lots and in nooks and corners of tumbled down buildings, where they gamble among themselves; joke and laugh; hold their feasts, apparently oblivious of the past or the future, and have quite a jolly time as any group of average individuals. The non-professionals, the men and women of the better class of other days who beg only as a last resort, do not participate in these gatherings, which are made up of the class which has always been beggars and knows nothing else of life.

Tea is served regularly at the beggars' resorts, the water being heated in big black kettles with a wood fire underneath. Tin cans and broken cups are brought into use by the various individuals in the scene in some respects resembling the camps of American tramps by the roadside in summer.

Late in the day or during the evening substantial food is heaped in kind, or with a few rubles, for whatever they may eat from the mess. This food is brought in by the others, and to carry to and from their places of "work" some of the beggars unable to walk or crawl because of their deformities.

When a beggar's feast is at its height in Moscow, as much laughter and as much merry making may be heard as anywhere in Russia.

Arthur Leclair, night watchman, shot and killed Victor Jenkudowich, 19, when the latter attempted to escape from him after being discovered on the top of a factory.

BRITISH NEGRO KILLS CONSTABLE

Robt. G. McBeath, Vancouver Officer, Winner of Victoria Cross in Great War, Victim of Bullet

VANCOUVER, Oct. 9.—Hero of the Great War and winner of the Victoria Cross, Police Constable Robert G. McBeath, V.C., lies dead in the city morgue today, the victim, it is alleged, of a bullet from a gun in the hands of a drink-crazed negro, while Detective R. S. Quirk is also wounded, a shot having struck him in the left hand. The negro appeared in police court this morning and was charged with murder. He was remanded until Thursday next.

McBeath met death on Granville Street, near Davie Street, at 2:30 a.m. today, when, seeing an auto driven in an erratic manner, he stopped the car, to find Fred Deal, 30, at the wheel.

The negro, who was accompanied by Marjorie Earl, a woman of the underworld, was ordered by McBeath to leave the car, and was taken across to the patrol box. Detective Quirk, who happened to be nearby, took the woman from the auto.

So far as can be ascertained, Deal commenced struggling with the constable, and Detective Quirk, rushing to the assistance of his comrade, was met with a shot which struck his left hand, inflicting a bad wound. A second shot glanced from his head near the right ear, causing Quirk to fall, whereupon Constable McBeath attempted to pick up his stricken brother officer, only to topple across his prostrate body with a bullet through the breast, close to the heart.

Rising, after struggling from beneath the body of McBeath, Quirk pursued the alleged assassin, who turned into an alley. The detective fired a number of shots in his endeavor to "wing" his man, the chase being taken up by several men who were aroused by the shooting.

Meanwhile, Constable McBeath, mortally wounded, was rushed to St. Paul's Hospital, where death took place shortly after admission.

In response to a call, men were sent from headquarters to search for the fugitive, and an hour after the tragedy Deal was captured and placed in custody.

The woman, Earl, was arrested and held as a material witness.

Constable McBeath, although a comparatively new member of the department, was one of the most popular men at headquarters, his unassuming character endearing him to all his comrades.

Noted for his bravery, his comrades today comment on the manner in which he met death, after passing through service overseas and winning an enviable reputation. He is survived by a widow.

Coroner Jeffs has ordered an inquest to be held on Tuesday.

Constable McBeath was one of the youngest members of the local force, and also one of its most promising athletes. As a member of the police team which went to Seattle a few weeks ago, he carried off the half-mile event, and also the same race in the annual police meet in Vancouver.

He won his Victoria Cross while serving with a battalion of the Argyl and Sutherland Highlanders in France, and came to Vancouver on his discharge from the Imperial army.

SHARP DISCUSSION AT PENSION INQUIRY

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.—Colonel McKee, a member of the Ration Commission investigating Great War Veterans' Association charges against the Pensions Board, and a prominent Toronto physician, took occasion at Sturdee's sitting to criticize sharply the attitude taken by Dr. Burgess, Medical Adviser to the Pensions Board, in the case of Private Alex Smith, who served in France with the Canadian Mounted Rifles.

Private Smith was discharged with synovitis of both knees and awarded 40 per cent pension for inability to walk. He subsequently contracted influenza and later pneumonia. He died suddenly from an embolism. Pension was refused the relative, Dr. Burgess taking the view that there was no connection between service and death.

Commissioner McKee questioned Dr. Burgess as to the procedure followed in the case, and then warmly remarked: "If that is your attitude and you are sincere in it, all I can say is that you are not competent to handle these cases. If you place that before me as a real argument, then I say you are not competent to handle these cases. That is my judgment."

"If I am not competent to handle these cases, then the doctor who treated the patient was not competent," sharply retorted Dr. Burgess.

Here Dr. Gordon Henderson, counsel for the Board of Pensions, intervened. "I am instructed," he said, "that the Pension Commissioners are in a position to maintain the attitude taken by Dr. Burgess by expert evidence."

Colonel Ralston, chairman of the commission, observed that the commission had not to deal with the question of medical opinion, but rather how medical opinion had been acted upon.

SAYS DISTRICT IS OVERRATED

Mr. Charles E. Wilson, Back From Trip to Peace River Country With Brothers, Gives Impressions

The Peace River country is greatly overrated.

That is the impression gained by Mr. Charles E. Wilson, local barrister, who returned to Victoria on Sunday after a six weeks' trip through the northern district in company with his two brothers, Messrs. Joseph E. and Hilda Wilson.

The Victorians left here in August, and had a most interesting trip. They went to Prince George and from there they motored to Summit Lake. With them they had an Evinrude outboard motor, and this they attached to a river boat which they purchased, and commenced the three hundred-mile journey by lake and river to Hudson's Hope, on the Peace River. Down the Crooked River, the Peace, the Parlane and the Peace, they made their way, and ended with a fourteen-mile portage to Hudson's Hope.

With Hudson's Hope as the starting point, the Wilson brothers went in to the South Peace River by pack train, taking six days on this trip, and, after returning to the Hope, took their pack train into the Half Way and Cameron Rivers, this side trip consuming nine days. Over 300 miles were covered by horseback.

From Hudson's Hope to Peace River Landing, a distance of 250 miles, the party traveled on the Inghenla, a boat owned by the Inghenla Mining Company, which carried forty passengers on that trip, although having a normal capacity of ten. The Victorians slept with the freight.

From Peace River Landing, the travelers made their way to Edmonton by the Edmonton & Dunvegan Railway, thence the trip back to the Coast at Prince Rupert by way of the G. T. P., coming south to Victoria on a Grand Trunk steamer.

Peace River Block
"Outside of what is known as the Peace River Block, which is the property of the Dominion Government, very little of the British Columbia land in that district is any good," said Mr. Charles Wilson yesterday. "The opinion appears to prevail that there is considerable fertile there. This is not correct. The country is covered with poplar, willow, spruce and jackpine, and a lot of muskeg was encountered."

There is too much good land available still in Alberta with better transportation facilities, to make the British Columbia land in the Peace River district attractive to settlers, claims Mr. Wilson. The farmers already in there are discouraged, owing to the difficulties encountered in marketing their produce. Those around Grand Prairie are paying fifty cents per bushel to get their grain to market, while the price obtained for a three-year-old steer is sufficient to leave the rancher only $10 after freight has been paid. This amount is all that there is in the cost of the keep of the animal for three years.

Transportation is the big problem, declares Mr. Wilson, pointing out the need for a rail connection with the Coast. He cannot see, however, that it is possible to provide this at the present time with the railway situation as it is. He found that some of the settlers were moving out. A big drawback to cattle raising in the north country, he points out, is that the animals must be fed for six months of the year.

Asked about mining developments, Mr. Wilson said that the Inghenla Mining Company was placing mining on Brennan's Bar on the Peace River, 20 miles above Rocky Mountain Canyon. Neil Gething is developing his coal property near the same canyon.

EIGHTY CENTS AN HOUR DOES NOT ATTRACT

Some Out-of-Works Turn Up Noses at Such a Pittance—Strong Demand for Labor

With a demand for forty men to do longshoremen's work on a steamship at the Outer Wharves at wages of eighty cents per hour, a dozen men who hang about the Employment Bureau but who, so far, have shown no particular desire to work, treated with scorn the suggestion of employment officials yesterday that there was an opportunity for them to secure a job. Two ships in port called for a larger number of longshoremen than were available, and hence the call sent in for the forty extra men. About twenty-five were secured, but the dozen of the "too-strong-to-work" variety remained near the Employment Bureau apparently looking for something easy.

There is still a strong demand for men in the logging camps and interior sections. Mr. J. D. McEwen, Deputy Minister of Labor, stated yesterday. "In fact some logging camps have been forced to close down because of their inability to secure a working force. It is likely, however, that with the men returning from the harvest fields—the vanguard is now arriving on the Coast—there will be more labor offering."

When the harvest work first commenced and men from Victoria and other points went to the prairies there were several reports sent back by them telling of unsatisfactory conditions and of their inability to secure work as promised. These reports were followed up by the labor officials who complained that the labor authorities on the prairies and through them the individuals sending back the reports were traced up and their record since they reached the prairies was studied.

"In not a single instance have we found that the reports sent back by those complainants were correct. On the contrary, they were quite untrue," said Mr. McEwen yesterday. He cited several individual instances of complaints sent back, stating that investigation has shown that the men complaining had deliberately refused to accept work and, instead, had preferred to lie around the towns and sponge upon any who could be induced to give them money.

Veteran of Two Wars Makes Long Trip to Find Out Prospects of Joining Contingent.

With service in the South African and the Great wars to his credit, former Private Jack Fogarty, an ex-member of the 16th Battalion, Canadian Scottish, came from San Francisco to Victoria to find out if he could again serve with the Canadian forces. Fogarty arrived in Victoria Saturday evening to make inquiries as to what action was being taken in Canada with regard to raising a contingent to take part in the possible hostilities in the Near East. "You can't get accurate information in a neutral country of the Canadian military situation," he said, "and during the last war, until the United States joined in, we were led to believe that Canada had all the men they wanted. On arrival in the country, we found that she was in need of men." Although the volunteer from the United States still suffers from a disability from wounds sustained at Vimy Ridge, he had hopes of signing in some branch of the service where his services and past experiences could be utilized.

POWER MUST GO BACK TO CHINA

ACCUSED FAILS TO OBTAIN WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS
Judge in Chambers Holds That Man Held Here on Embargoment Charges Must Face Trial

Stephen Power, late of Tientsin, China, but more recently and for the last three months held in the city lockup, must return to that country to face charges of embargoment preferred against him by the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, his employers on the other side of the water. Such was the outcome of the refusal by Mr. Justice Morrison yesterday to grant the writ of habeas corpus asked for by Power's counsel, Mr. R. C. Lowe.

The proceedings yesterday were by way of appeal from the recent order of deportation made by Magistrate Jay. The accused man was arrested here three months ago, as he landed from a China boat, by officers of the Provincial police, who acted on advice from Shanghai. Since then he has been held on remand, awaiting depositions from the other side. With the arrival of these, Mr. H. A. Maclean, K.C., acting for the Crown, was able to satisfy the magistrate that there was a prima facie case against the accused, and the order for deportation followed. Mr. Maclean appeared in chambers yesterday. Mr. J. A. Aikman appeared for the Sun Company.

Photographic Identity
That there was still a possibility of further action in behalf of Power on this side of the Pacific, despite the seeming finality of yesterday's decision, was intimated by Mr. Lowe, who, when he found that the man held in Victoria would not leave until October 18, was reminded that he might still bring the same application for writ of habeas corpus before each of the Supreme Court judges in turn, such a procedure being one of the peculiar privileges attaching to the most ancient process of Anglo-Saxon law.

The main contention of defendant's counsel yesterday turned on the point that the photograph sent from China with the depositions, as attested and sealed before the British Court of Shanghai, could not be held to be sufficient identification of the man held in Victoria police cells for the past three months. This photograph was sent, attached to the affidavit of one Anshroff, that it was that of Power, and that some direct evidence of identification was necessary on this side of the water before the accused could be sent back to face trial.

TO WAKE UP A LAZY LIVER

For "liverishness," constipation, biliousness, headache, drowsiness, bad complexion, etc., try drinking before breakfast a little Aikla Saltrate dissolved in hot water. Feel fit as a prize fighter all day.

When you sleep the heart immediately slows down and the sluggish moving blood deposits greasy and acidulous poisons—toxins—throughout the system. Next morning the blood flows more rapidly again, but cannot flush out all the impurities accumulated overnight. That means a clogged and congested condition. "The beginning of all diseases." So poisons are sucked into the blood through thousands of absorbent inlets. You should thoroughly cleanse the whole system by washing out all the poisons in the morning. Then your body acts better, as a fire burns better with most cleared from chimney. Ask your chemist for a few ounces of refined Aikla Saltrate, and take before breakfast and once after the noon or evening meal, a teaspoonful of this dissolved in a half tumbler of hot water. The before-breakfast dose promptly washes out the poisons accumulated during the night from the entire intestinal tract, leaving the way clear to receive and properly digest food. The saltrate also acts as a purgative by absorption, thus stimulating that organ and removing any congestion or sluggishness. This remarkable Aikla Saltrate is also harmless as sugar in any quantity, and it never gives. Children love it, especially with a little sugar added. It is the greatest solvent and eliminant known to science, and its amazing curative properties will make you a crank on the subject of internal cleanliness.

TWO WAR VETERANS JOIN LEGAL RANKS

Messrs. John O. Wilson and William H. M. Haldane Welcomed by Mr. Justice Morrison

Two veterans of the Great War, Messrs. John Owen Wilson, of Prince George, and William Henry Murray Haldane, of Victoria, were welcomed to the ranks of the legal profession yesterday by Mr. Justice Morrison, at the sitting of the Supreme Court. The young lawyers were presented to the learned judge, on behalf of the Benchers of the Law Society, by Mr. W. C. Moreby. In a brief speech of congratulation, His Lordship wished them good luck and a successful career in the profession, the best traditions of which, he was very confident, they would worthily maintain.

Served in 1922
Mr. John Owen Wilson, is the son of Mr. J. E. Wilson, a well-known barrister of Prince George, at which place the young man intends to practice as the junior partner in his father's law firm. He has successfully concluded the legal studies commenced on his return from service overseas in 1919. He enlisted in Prince George in 1915, and served in France with the 102nd Battalion. Shortly before the end of the war he entered training as a cadet of the Royal Air Force, and was awaiting his commission as an airman when the armistice came.

Ex-Liquor Vendor Acquired
PENTICTON, B. C., Oct. 9.—In the Police Court at Keremeos on Saturday, Harry Tidy, former vendor at Keremeos for the British Columbia Liquor Control Board, was acquitted of a charge of stealing $700 worth of liquor, while he was in charge of the liquor store.

Mr. William H. M. Haldane, who passed his final examinations last July, but who was not called as a barrister until yesterday because the legal term of his articles had not expired on the former date, is the son of Mrs. H. A. Haldane, 227 Oliver Street, Oak Bay, and a grandson of the late Dr. G. T. Orton, a well-known member of the Dominion House of Commons during the administration of Sir John A. Macdonald.

A Fine War Record
Mr. Haldane is also a veteran of the Great War. He enlisted in Vernon in 1916 and served in France in the ranks of the 47th Battalion, C.E.F. In 1918 he obtained his commission as an officer of the Royal Air Force. On his discharge from the army, Mr. Haldane began the study of law at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, and was afterwards admitted in the local offices of Messrs. M. H. Jackson, K.C., and Hugh Allen.

One Glorious Year

By MAY CHRISTIE

There's an old and very wise saying that "the happiest people have no histories."

And, from the time that George and I were reunited, events ran quietly and placidly, and I experienced a happiness so marvellous that at times I resented, foolishly and unreasonably, praying that nothing may arrive to mar it.

Love! Can anything in the world compare to it? Often—and for this very phrase I used to smile at Penella in the early days of her honeymoon—I wonder what I've done to deserve such perfect bliss?

George and I were married quite two months after his rescue of me. We have a home in a quiet, in the fashionable quarter, and yet neither of us care a great deal for society, in the narrow meaning of the term. We have each other, and our friends, and our books, and a hundred interests and things in common that weld us all the closer as the days go by.

George has a large and excellent practice, and is what the world would term a highly successful man. But the world doesn't know the amount of good he does in secret, the charities that are his joy, the poor people that he tends gratefully, the gifts of service that he gives.

Giving! That's another secret of our happiness, I think. Until I married George, I had no conception of the richness of his character, and the sheer loveliness of the man himself.

They say that marriage kills romance, but every day it seems to me I fall deeper and deeper in love. I am writing this tonight on the anniversary of my first arrival from the country into town. One year ago, Penella met me at the railroad station and shortly after that, introduced George to me, and he and I started the friendship that waxed and waned, and was interrupted, and developed into love, and has its consummation in the happiness I now possess.

Penella and her husband dined with us tonight, and we only fittingly, in the circumstances, we fell to talking of old times. "I heard that Vanda LaFleur has gone on a dancing tour," said George, and he looked at me. "She's announced the engagement, and intends to be married pretty shortly." "If he doesn't slip through her fingers in the meantime," supplemented Monte grimly. "Vanda can't hold her beaux for very long. Her engagements don't develop into matrimony as a usual rule. I think the men find the lady out in time."

"Pl. you old cynic," laughed his wife, shaking her head at him. And then she added: "By the way, I hear that Mr. Carter's got rid of her New York apartment and her country home, and taken up a splendid little abode in the south of France, not very far from Monte Carlo. She'll enjoy an occasional flutter at the tables, I am sure."

George has never said so in so many words, but I know that Mrs. Carter did her best to make amends for the mischief that she instigated between himself and the other, and few her share in it, humiliating as such confession must have been.

CHILD WELFARE EXPERTS SPEAK

Local Council of Women Receive Valuable Suggestions for Work—Equal Morals Committee Appointed

Two experienced child welfare workers, Dr. Heston Hudson, lately of England, and Miss Murray, secretary of the Anti-Tuberculosis League of Rhode Island, addressed the meeting of the Local Council of Women yesterday, bringing with them a number of suggestions which may be embodied by the Council in any programme which it adopts for similar work here.

Welfare work in England is run under the Ministry of Health and the Municipal Government, receiving financial support from both. Dr. Hudson said that the work was rather over-invested. Voluntary help had its advantages, also its disadvantages. Among the latter were mentioned the fluctuating personnel. It was much better to have the same people working constantly on the same cases. Therefore, the child welfare work was carried out in three periods, embracing all ages of the child from birth on through the nursery and primary school. Under such constant inspection mental and physical defects were early singled out and placed into special schools. Also this method discovered the crippled and blind children, who hitherto had received no schooling, and provided educational facilities for them.

Methods of inspecting the school children, open-air and convalescent schools, were also referred to. Children in the first stages of tuberculosis were early detected and sent to these schools. In United States Miss Murray's report of what is being done at Providence, Rhode Island, in child welfare indicated that something the same method was being used there to follow the child from birth onward, and keep a record of its health. The schoolroom is used for a well-baby clinic. Here mothers could bring their children to have them weighed and measured and get advice, leaving the nurse to deal with the mothers. At first the doctors had not been paid for their services, but it had since been found more satisfactory to treat the matter in a business way.

Equal Morals Mrs. Unsworth was appointed convener of the Equal Moral Standard committee, other members being Mrs. Schofield, Mrs. Spofford, and Mrs. J. H. Gordon. Mrs. Unsworth explained that the initial plan of the committee was to form groups which would discuss and study the subject under the guidance of some speaker. Mrs. Schofield called on members for an expression of their views on the Equal

More Standard question, the idea being that these views would be pooled and incorporated in a pamphlet which the Local Council of Women had been asked to present to the Provincial Council of Social Hygiene. Referring to Dr. Hudson's address, Mrs. Schofield said that it drove home with much force Victoria's lack of a special school for the care of children, while there were also wanting a school for cripples, an open-air school, a crèche, and some means of continuing antenatal work.

University Buildings A letter from the Alma Mater Society of the University of British Columbia appealed to the Local Council of Women to support them in a campaign which they were launching to urge upon the Provincial Government the necessity of pushing forward the work on the University buildings at Point Grey.

Mrs. Galbraith reported the progress of her plans for the rummage sale which is to be held on Saturday, October 21.

The secretary was instructed to send greetings to the Council to the Women's Institute conference which opens tomorrow.

Mrs. J. D. Gordon, Mrs. H. P. Hodges, and Mrs. M. B. Spence were appointed to a committee to nominate candidates for positions as elderwoman, school trustees, and police commissioner.

LEPERS IMPROVING AT D'ARCY ISLAND

DR. PAGE FINDS WONDERFUL IMPROVEMENT AT COLONY

Head of Dominion Health Services Here From Outer Patient Already Released

The dread leprosy, scourge of the ages, is being treated in very effective fashion at the Canadian leper colony at D'Arcy Island, according to Dr. J. D. Page, head of the Dominion health services, who is in the inspection of the quarantine establishments on this coast.

Dr. Page paid a visit to the island on Sunday, making the trip out in the quarantine tender "Madre," together with Dr. Chester Brown, medical officer in charge of the William Head quarantine station. Yesterday Dr. Page inspected William Head. He leaves for Seattle on this afternoon's steamer en route East again.

There are six patients in confinement on D'Arcy Island at the present time, Dr. Page said last night. Of these five are Chinese, and the sixth a white man from Central Europe, nationally taken in charge in Manitoba and brought to the Coast some time ago.

"They are all improving perceptibly. The treatment we are giving is showing very appreciable results," said Dr. Page. "We are keeping in touch with all the great leper colonies in the world, in Hawaii, India and the Philippines, and are using the latest word in discoveries tending to the successful treatment of this disease. We are applying the most modern methods, and methods for treating leprosy are improving all the time."

Released Cured So effective is the D'Arcy Island treatment that one man, a Chinaman, was released some months ago cured of the affliction that once was looked upon as beyond cure. The condition of some of the other patients is an favorable at the present time that Dr. Page confidently predicted that others at the island would also eventually be set at liberty.

PEOPLE CHECK NAMES ON LIST

While Registrations Slow, Considerable Number of Citizens Call at City Hall to See No Mistakes Made

While registrations are coming into the City Hall slowly so far, the City Clerk's office reports that a considerable number of people have called there to check up their names on the voters' list and to give changes of address.

Last year the registrations set a new record for the city, and this year re-registration by those who took the declarations last year is unnecessary. Payment of the two-dollar road tax keeping the names on the voters' list. Citizens who do not need to register are urged to check up their names and addresses at the City Hall.

Calgary, with which Victoria is competing this year for the greater total of votes at the December election in proportion to population, had over 8,000 people call at the city hall during June and July to check up their names on the list and give notice of changes in addresses.

Registration continues until October 21, but citizens are urged to register as soon as possible in order to prevent a last-minute crush at the City Clerk's office.

RECEPTION HELD FOR RETIRING OFFICERS

Women's Canadian Club Will Meet Socially on October 17—To Commemorate Armistice Day

The first regular meeting of the Women's Canadian Club in its new financial year will take the form of a reception to the retiring officers. The affair will be at the Empress Hotel on October 17. It was decided by the new executive at its first meeting yesterday morning, when committees were appointed to deal with the various phases of the club's work during the ensuing twelve months. Programme committee: Miss Margaret Clay, Miss Cann, Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Smith; budget, Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. 23; host, Mrs. Nasmith and Mrs. Conyers; social, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Towser and Mrs. Peterson; decoration, Mrs. H. Taylor, Mrs. E. M. Brown and Mrs. Walter Scott.

The executive discussed the celebration of Armistice Day, an anniversary which they thought should be fittingly marked by the Women's Canadian Club, and a committee consisting of the president, Mrs. Hyndman, and Mesdames Jenkins and Spofford, has been appointed to confer with the men's Canadian Club with a view to some co-operation in the matter.

COURT RESENTS DELAY

Magistrate Refused Long Remand and Fixed Date for Hearing

Magistrate Jay yesterday refused the further week's adjournment asked for in the case of Philip Handley, charged with unlawfully retaining a quantity of whisky, the property of Frank Ledingham, knowing the same to have been stolen. His Honor was not satisfied that good cause for further remand had been submitted and set the trial for the case peremptorily for tomorrow.

City Prosecutor Harrison said that the adjournment was requested both by Mr. Frank Higgins, K.C., acting for the complainant, and Mr. H. C. Lowe, for the defence, but Mr. Harrison was unable to say why further delay was essential to the convenience of either side.

"I don't like these repeated adjournments without reason," said Magistrate Jay, "the case must go on next Wednesday." It is more than broadly hinted that energetic cross-examination at the coming trial would disclose a highly interesting story.

APPEALS TO BOARD FOR AID FOR SETTLERS

Premier Will Ascertain if the C.N.R. Board Can Remedy Difficulties of Peace River Residents

Following a three weeks' visit to the Peace River section, where he studied conditions confronting the settlers and became convinced that only by providing some transportation outlet can the settlers there make a living, Mr. T. G. McBride, federal member for the Cariboo Riding, reached the city yesterday and conferred with Premier Oliver.

Mr. McBride had a long story to tell the Premier of the drawbacks being faced by the settlers. He was apparently unaware of the fact that Premier Oliver for the past two years has been fully seized of the facts of the case, facts which he secured on a personal visit to the Peace River section, and as a result of which, two years ago, he sought to make arrangements with the Alberta Government whereby the Edmonton, Dunvegan & British Columbia Railway should be built west from Spirit River to the interprovincial line and thus give a rail outlet for the produce of the Peace River section.

Premier Oliver explained all this to the federal member, who expressed his surprise that such efforts had already been made, and he informed the Premier that he would tell the settlers in that section that the British Columbia Government had done all it could to get relief for them.

It was suggested by Mr. McBride that perhaps the new board of the Canadian National Railways could do something towards providing for railway facilities to the Peace River section.

Premier Oliver agreed to get into touch with the board at the earliest possible moment and ascertain whether the Premier that he would tell the settlers in that section that the British Columbia Government had done all it could to get relief for them.

VALUE OF IMPROVED COUNTRY ROADS FELT

Councillor McWilliam Tells Good Roads Convention—School Resolutions Important

Better roads would lead to greater settlement of the country districts, with consequent increase of production, and would give an impetus to general development. This was the thought running through the recent Good Roads Convention at Kamloops. Councillor George McWilliam, a Saanich delegate, stated upon his return.

"Much life was injected into the convention by the talk of Mr. Terrace, of the State of Washington," said Mr. McWilliam. "The visitor told of the manner in which the construction of good roads began in his state and of the difficulty of getting the first mile done. The farmers had given little help to the project, but after the first mile was laid the very horses testified to the benefits of better roads by showing reluctance in leaving the pavement and taking to the dirt and mud roads."

"The farmers, able to take a larger load to market, and through other benefits, soon came to the conclusion that it was better to dig down into their pockets and get the roads improved than to plod along in the old way."

"Much stress on the need of finishing up the Provincial Highway was laid at the convention, and strong representations along these lines will be made to the Provincial Government."

"One cannot help paying tribute to the manner in which ex-Mayor Gale, of Vancouver, the president of the Good Roads League, presided over the convention."

Councillor McWilliam was also a delegate to the convention of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities. The method of submitting all resolutions to a resolutions committee for consideration saved a great deal of time, he said. While there were a great many good resolutions passed by the gathering, pointed out the councillor, in his opinion the most outstanding was that asking the Government to take over the maintenance and operation of the schools, or, in lieu of that, to collect sufficient funds to cover the cost of education through the levying of an income tax. This latter plan, thought the Saanich delegate, would be more equitable than the present system.

A convention such as that of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities had a great educational value, stated Councillor McWilliam, made one feel that to engage in public service was a great work, in spite of all the kicks a public man has to submit to," said he. "Not a little of my enjoyment was contributed by Kamloops, which spared no pains in making our stay an enjoyable one."

Reeve George Watson, of Saanich, was a member of the resolutions committee of the municipalities convention, and was elected as a member of the executive of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE SESSIONS BEGIN

Annual Conference to Open Tomorrow—Very Interesting Addresses to Be Given

The annual conference of the Vancouver Island district of the Women's Institutes of British Columbia will open tomorrow morning at nine o'clock, in the press room of the Parliament Buildings. The three days' programme is a busy one, and will begin with the address of welcome to out-of-town delegates by Mrs. H. Crocker, president of the Victoria Institute. Mrs. B. M. Gow, of Valdes Island, will follow, and among the first luncheon speakers will be Mrs. Henderson, address as chairman of the advisory board.

The programme will be composed largely of reports of the district standing committees and the discussions which these will evoke. Among the outstanding speakers will be Miss Mary Ard Macdonald, director of public health nursing at the University of British Columbia; Miss A. J. Dauphinee, who will speak about the work of the special school in Vancouver and mental hygiene; Judge Magill, of Vancouver, whose subject will be "Legislation."

Tomorrow evening there will be three speakers, Mrs. V. S. MacLaughlin, secretary of the B.C. Women's Institute, who will report the work of the organization for the year; Mrs. James O'Brien, of Vancouver, who will speak of the "Drug Traffic"; and Mrs. Schofield, whose subject will be "Social Hygiene."

Hon. S. F. Tolmie has been asked to address one of the sessions of the conference on agriculture. Other speakers on following days will be Mr. William Forster, of the "Buy-Made-in-B.C. Bureau," who will speak of B.C. Industries. City members are asked to attend all sessions, but particularly are urged to be present at this address of Mr. Forster on Friday morning, and for the subsequent discussion, the idea being to bring together the women of the rural districts and the women of the city in an effort to arrive at some means of attaining improved market conditions.

The social part of the conference is not being overlooked, as the Victoria Women's Institute will give a luncheon at the Hudson's Bay Company's store at 12:30 on Thursday, and on Friday afternoon the Equinault Women's Institute will entertain the delegates at tea at Spencer's.

MEMORIAL UNVEILED

MAJOR THE REV. C. C. OWEN OFFICIATES AT CEREMONY

Big Congregation Present at Church of Our Lord on Sunday to Commemorate Dead

A big congregation was present at the church of Our Lord on Sunday to witness the unveiling by Major the Rev. C. C. Owen, of Vancouver, of the memorial tablet erected to the memory of eleven members of the church who had made the supreme sacrifice during the late war.

The services were impressive. The subject of Major Owen's address was "Let Us Forget," the speaker, who spent a long time in France as an army chaplain, referring to the many instances of unrecorded heroism which had come to his knowledge in the course of his work. The sounding of the Last Post was the signal for the unveiling of the bronze tablet which has been presented to the church by the fathers of one of the boys who gave his life for his country. Klipping's Recessional and the Ruy-Prinsep Corporation's band, of the 8th Regiment, a veteran of the South African war as well as of the Great War, sounded the Reveille.

KUMTUKS' DANCE PLANS DISCUSSED

ANNUAL SOCIAL EVENT TO BE HELD FRIDAY NEXT

Alderman Perry Speaks on Fire Prevention, and Miss Unwin re Girl Guides

Final arrangements for the dance to be held on Friday evening at Alexandra ballroom were placed before the Kumtuka Club at its regular luncheon meeting yesterday at David Spencer's. All indications point to a very delightful evening. Heaton's orchestra will furnish the music, and a very able committee has been entrusted with the supper arrangements. The ballroom has been entirely renovated and redecorated, since the club's last dance, the balcony being made much more easily accessible as a sitting-out room by the stairs which have been built directly from the hall to the gallery. Card tables are being arranged for the non-dancers, Miss McIlrae being in charge of this detail. Tickets for the dance are to be had from Miss McIlrae, Miss McIlrae, or other members of the club, or from Brown, the floral, View Street.

In addition to an interesting address on Girl Guides given by Miss Unwin, the club yesterday had the pleasure of hearing an excellent talk by Alderman Perry on fire prevention. The difference between fire prevention and fire protection was very clearly pointed out by this speaker.

Mr. J. Douglas Macey, a well-known Victoria composer, has written music for the song composed by Mrs. E. B. Shaw, "Victoria, Our Homeland," the music being dedicated to the Kumtuka Club. The society expressed its appreciation of the honor.

The club received with much pleasure an invitation to a house-warming on October 14 at the home of the Misses Bowron, Mason and Paul, 628 Vancouver Street.

Magistrate Advises Neighbors Whose Differences Find in Use of Fists

In the Saanich Police Court yesterday Magistrate Jay dismissed charges of assault preferred by Edward C. Frewitt of Oakmount Road, Saanich, against his immediate neighbors, C. H. Hemmick and Robert Noble. The complainant alleged that because he had complained to the police of the annoyance caused by the children of the accused, the latter had come to his house after dark, called him out into his own yard, and there set upon him and severely manhandled him, so that a bone in his shoulder was fractured in the melee.

The court came to the conclusion that to record a conviction would be to exacerbate the bitterness between the parties, as eloquently evinced in the testimony given on both sides. The magistrate advised a little practice of the Golden Rule, and an attempt to instill the rudiments of manly conduct in the children concerned.

NEW IDEAS ON POLICE METHODS

Mr. W. E. Staneland Back From New York Convention—Intimates Local Reorganization Next Year

Police Commissioner Walter E. Staneland returned to Victoria yesterday from the National Police Conference at New York, convinced that this city's traffic laws need revision, that the present form of Sabbath observance is satisfactory except in respect to Chinese stores, and that stool pigeons, or special agents as they are called in the East, have a legitimate place in crime detection.

He made the announcement that a Federal hospital for drug addicts would be established in British Columbia at once, and that it would probably be located on Vancouver Island.

Mr. Staneland said that while in New York he had learned a great deal about police organization and methods, and that he had in mind several proposals for the reorganization of the Victoria Police Department.

"I will not give out any details regarding my plans for reorganization until next year when we have a new Board," said Mr. Staneland.

The commissioner did state, however, that he intended to seek the authority of the present board for the establishment of a bicycle corps to police the outlying parts of the city.

"In all the large cities I visited and in many of the smaller ones the police department placed great reliance on bicycle squads," said Mr. Staneland. "Such a squad would be of tremendous assistance in preventing vandalism among small boys in the suburban districts. It would add to the general efficiency of the force."

New York, with a population of 4,000,000 on Manhattan Island, has 11,000 policemen. London, with 6,000,000 people, has 23,000 policemen or more than double the number. In London all the policemen are on foot, while in New York every sergeant and inspector has a small automobile.

Traffic Laws

Mr. Staneland, after seeing policemen at point duty at street intersections in Eastern cities, believes that Victoria should readopt that system at once.

"To have a few policemen directing traffic at the principal traffic centres gives a good impression to visitors, if nothing else," said Mr. Staneland, who thoroughly inspected the methods in use for regulating vehicular and pedestrian traffic on Fifth Avenue, New York.

"So far as these big cities are concerned, they have many regulations which would not be justified in Victoria because of the difference in size and volume of the traffic," said Mr. Staneland. "However, I think we should enforce the parking of cars in a more uniform way, closer to and further from the sidewalks. Personally, I am much opposed to the present indiscriminate parking of automobiles in Victoria's downtown districts."

Statistics presented at the convention showed that 2 per cent of the downtown automobile accidents were caused by negligence of pedestrians, but Mr. Staneland does not intend to press for jay-walking restrictions.

Sunday Closing

"I found that Toronto and other cities in the East are not closed up any tighter than Victoria on Sunday."

days," said Mr. Staneland. "I am quite satisfied with Sunday conditions as they are in Victoria at present, except for the Chinese grocery stores. I think they should be closed, but I am not going to advocate that in an official way. If the Sunday closing laws are to be enforced in any respect in British Columbia, they should be made to apply to the whole of the Province or else not at all. Victoria should not be singled out for separate treatment just because a controversy happened to arise here."

New York uses thousands of stool pigeons, but the police department calls them special agents, according to Mr. Staneland.

"Sessions of the night court and the other police courts in New York are worth seeing," he said. "I will never forget them. Many of the delegates were spectators and we could not tell the difference between the prisoners and the special agents in many cases. The special agents make it their business to appear as much as possible as though they belonged to the same class as their quarry. For instance, there were men whom I could have sworn were drug addicts, yet they were detectives—special men who every day were bringing in their quota. New York uses men of this kind in its investigations of bucket shops, race track gambling, dope peddling and other evils. The special agents were when in court so that the prisoners may never identify them."

Smashing up the trade in narcotics, which has grown to immense proportions throughout the continent, should be the first objective of police departments everywhere, in the opinion of Mr. Staneland.

"In the East dope peddlers are being treated in the police courts much more severely than out here," said Mr. Staneland. "Sellers of cocaine and heroin are being arrested and must pay a fine of $500 and six months' imprisonment, or nine months without fine." He mentioned that fines for prostitution had been eliminated. Jail sentences or discharges were now being given by the Eastern magistrates, he said.

Mr. Staneland told the convention about Victoria's drug traffic problem. According to stenographic reports of the convention, he said in part: "Our particular trouble is with the Chinese. I presume 75 per cent of the cases which come into our courts are those of the Chinese. During the past few months a very serious agitation for prohibition has been stimulated. Jail sentences or discharges were now being given by the Eastern magistrates, he said."

Mr. Staneland said that he had endeavored to place before me a strong argument in relation to narcotic drugs and endeavored to persuade me that the Chinese were not importing drugs. I later discovered that our Mounted Police, who attend to such cases in Canada, had seized from $3,000 to $5,000 of these drugs on a steamer, consigned to a Chinese merchant.

"Not only do the Chinese deal in opium, but it is also among them that the peddlers of cocaine and heroin. I read a statement recently in which an anti-prohibitionist endeavored to lay a strong argument against prohibition, and he stated that the being flood of narcotic drugs into the United States was due to the fact that the Chinese were not importing drugs. My judgment tells me that statement must be wrong, because in the provinces of Quebec and British Columbia, where we do not obtain all the liquor you want if you have the money to pay for it, these two provinces are the centres of narcotic drug trade, and the statement can thus be easily refuted."

Corrective Treatment "I have from time to time received unsigned letters, stating that young people were in the midst of China-town. On each of these occasions when I received such communications I had taken officers and gone through Chinatown from stem to stern, and in no instance did we find any young boy or young girl under the influence of a drug. But a number of cases have been brought to our attention of girls, daughters of respectable parents, who are not self-willed and who care little for the feelings of the parents or the advice of the magistrates. The magistrates don't know what to do with these young people. We took occasion when the Attorney-General of Canada was out West a few months ago to place the facts before him, and I think the outcome of his visit will be the establishment of a corrective treatment for addicts."

Mr. Staneland added that this could involve amendments to the criminal code and the establishment of institutions in each province.

"I am more convinced than ever that there is nothing seriously wrong with Victoria," he said. "I believe that within ten years property here will be at a premium, and it requires only a trip such as I have had to make a person more optimistic than ever regarding this city. If people would stop grumbling about taxes and minor municipal troubles and remember that they are living under the most advantageous conditions on the continent, we would all get along better and a better impression would be created in the minds of visitors and those contemplating residence here."

Trustees Discuss High School Cost

Saanich Board Hears That It Must Pay About $14,500 for Secondary Education

A report laid before the Saanich School Board last night stated that 182 Saanich students were attending Victoria High School, and two were going to the Esquimalt High School. Assuming that Oak Bay High School has eight Saanich pupils, high school education will cost the municipality $14,500 this school year.

It was shown that approximately 40 students were taking commercial and technical courses. This disclosure led Chairman Holloway to remark that positions for commercially and technically trained people were not available in Saanich.

"Isn't a commercial education good for farmers?" asked Trustee Mrs. Humphries.

LONG-ESTABLISHED STORE CLOSING OUT

Business of G. A. Richardson & Co., Operating Oldest Drygoods Business, to Be Wound Up

The oldest, exclusive dry goods store in Victoria is going out of business. Recently a closing-out sale was commenced by the firm of G. A. Richardson & Company, which first commenced business here thirty years ago. Owing to the winding up of the estate of the owner, Mr. G. A. Richardson, who recently died, the stock of the store is being sold out and the establishment closed.

Mr. G. A. Richardson opened a store on Douglas Street thirty years ago and remained at that location for seven years, moving then to Yates Street, on which thoroughfare he had conducted his business for twenty-three years.

The business was carried on along conservative lines by Mr. Richardson, whose policy was to buy and sell for cash, and to build up trade through offering merchandise at low prices, giving value for money received. He was well known as a business man of integrity.

The sale is in the hands of his nephew, Mr. H. B. Ilwaco, who was associated with him for 14 years. It is the first sale that the store has ever held, it not being the policy of Mr. Richardson to use this method of disposing of his merchandise. The goods offered in the sale were purchased by Mr. Richardson himself in the spring for the regular fall trade.

The stock which has been carried at the Richardson store has always been marked in plain figures in order that the customers themselves might see the prices. Every article in the store is reduced at the present time, all reductions being made from regular selling prices.

COUNCIL WOULD HOLD ALL LIQUOR PROFITS

Application Made by Equilmalt to Retain Amount Received From Control Board

At the meeting of the Equilmalt Council held last night Reeve A. Lockley announced his regret that he was unable to present a report on the recent Municipalities of British Columbia Convention. The Reeve stated that he wished to put his report in writing, but owing to an injured hand he had been unable to do so.

Mrs. Comerford asked if the Council's representations to secure a reduction of the 15 per cent penalty on excess of taxes had met with any success. She was informed that the resolution was killed in the early stages.

Liquor Profits Calling attention to a published report that Equilmalt has given $5,000 of its portion of profits received from the Liquor Control Board to hospitals, Reeve Lockley said that he had had a great show when he read of the apparent generosity of the council. They had received a letter from Mr. Baird, Inspector of Municipalities, informing them that twenty-five per cent of the amount must be given for hospitals used by that municipality. Mr. Baird had been approached to see if for this year they could not be allowed to use the whole amount as it had been earmarked for general purposes.

They were informed that the Government had met it as part of their policy, although not a permanent policy, that this percentage must be paid to hospitals.

Grant Tag Day

Councillor Heide entered his objection to a request made for taggers collecting for the Juvenile Pipe Band being allowed to enter Equilmalt. The Council voted to allow the taggers to operate in Equilmalt.

A committee was named to make investigations as to the investment of $100 of sinking funds and report to the Council.

A by-law to close and dispose of Biale Street (with the exception of the easterly thirty feet) and Herick Street was given final reading.

The report of Councillor Wilson, chairman of the Finance Committee, showed accounts to be paid amounting to $6,481.99, $4,245.45 of which was for school accounts, including salaries.

IMMIGRATION PLAN TO SETTLE PROVINCE

Hon. T. D. Pattullo Discussing Scheme Whereby Dominion and Farm Help Will Be Brought Out

A proposal under which it is contemplated bringing out to this Province families for domestic work and young men for farm work is being considered with British officials and organizations by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, according to a cable received yesterday by Premier Oliver from the Minister, who has spent the past three months in London discussing immigration matters with the Imperial authorities, and especially the plan of the Overseas Settlement Board, and which, if approved by the Imperial Parliament, will permit of a comprehensive programme of state aided emigration to the overseas Dominions.

Hon. Mr. Pattullo cabled that the plan under consideration contemplated sending females and young men to come to British Columbia. Under the arrangement the emigrants will be selected by the Salvation Army and brought out under the auspices of the Imperial Government, the Salvation Army and the Province, one-third of the cost being contributed by each of those bodies, and that cost to be reimbursed on some plan to be formulated.

Hon. Mr. Pattullo also stated in his cable that he is leaving London on October 12 for home. He will arrive here in time for the opening of the session of the Legislature on the 20th.

ESQUIMALT ZONE PLAN

Solicitor Reports on Proposed Change and Suggests Referendum—Matter Laid Over

The suggested plan to zone Esquimalt in residential and industrial districts was before the Esquimalt Council last night in the form of a letter from the municipality's solicitor, Mr. G. H. Bader, explaining to the council just how far they might go ahead with their plans. Mr. Bader pointed out that recent amendments to the Municipal Act gave powers to the council to make certain building restrictions and also drew attention to the fact that compensation to injured parties must be paid if the regulations were made retroactive. He suggested that any action which was taken should be under sub-section 164 of section 54 of the Municipal Act, which called for a referendum to obtain the opinion of the electorates.

The matter was laid over for discussion at a future meeting.

Soak the Dirt out.

THERE is such a simple easy way of washing rompers, school gingham, play clothes, etc., that you won't mind how many there are—thanks to Rinso.

First, make the wonderful Rinso liquid. Take half a packet of Rinso, thoroughly dissolve it in cool water, and add two quarts of boiling water. Then lay your clothes to soak in the tub of cool or lukewarm water. After one, two or three hours or in the morning give them a thorough rinsing and the dirt just runs away. No need to rub on the wash board so that holes come and colour goes.

Rinso is a wonderful product, scientifically made to wash clothes by soaking—different from soaps, chips and washing powders, and used differently. Do not put Rinso into the tub from the package, but make the Rinso liquid first.

IF YOU USE A WASHING MACHINE

Follow directions as above. After soaking the clothes wring them into machine, add enough fresh Rinso liquid, operate and rinse, and you will have the sweetest, cleanest clothes you ever saw.

The Sparklet Syphon

What it is — What it does

A Sparklet Syphon is a simple device for making "Sparkling" drinks at home. It consists of a wire-bound glass bottle with a special head through which the contents of the bottle can be "syphoned" or dispensed—just as desired. This head has a special fitting in which is placed the Sparklet, a little steel bulb containing the healthful gas which gives a beverage its "fizz."

Any beverage can be instantly transformed from a flat insipid liquid into a sparkling, refreshing thirst-quencher, full of the "fizz" that is the soul of a stimulating drink.

The Sparklet Syphon is easy to use. Simply fill the bottle with the beverage you want to "aerate" (fizz), insert the Sparklet in the syphon head, turn the cap, and—instantly you have a syphon of your favorite beverage, made sparkling and effervescent, to delight the most fastidious taste.

Sparklet Syphons, in 2 sizes, are sold, complete with box of sparklets, by all good drug and department stores. Renewal bulbs can be purchased and used with the original syphon, which, with care will last a lifetime.

WORLD'S SERIES WON BY GIANTS

Defeat New York Yankees Five to Three for Fourth Straight Victory in Sunday's Deciding Game

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The New York Giants are kings of baseball. The National League champions, by defeating the New York Yankees by five to three yesterday afternoon, won the classic title of world's champions, the series having closed with the Giants winning four games and the Yankees none, with one tie game.

Yesterday's game looked like victory for the Yankees up to the eighth inning, when the Giants clawed Joe Bush for four smashing hits and sent three runs across the plate.

The Yankees made a great effort to avert the disgrace of four straight defeats by the team which was supposed to be weak in pitchers, while they themselves were supposed to be pre-eminent in that department, and they very nearly succeeded. They were leading by three to two until the eighth inning. Then came a strategic move on the part of Hughson, the Yankees manager, which, although it was probably the policy which in nine cases out of ten would have proved successful, failed in this instance. Joe Bush got orders from the bench which mightily displeased him, but which he had to follow. It was after he had pitched one ball to Young with George Kelly the next batter up. Hughson ordered Bush to pass Young. This, when the Giants had runners on second and third with two out, Kelly who had fanned three times in the series, smashed a single to centre off the second ball pitched, and that unexpected hit won the game and the series for the Giants.

LADIES' GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

In the notice of the coming ladies' golf tournament in the Victoria City Golf Club in Sunday's Colonist it was stated that flights of eight will be provided of sufficient number to accommodate all entries. ST. ANDREW'S WIN BASKETBALL GAME

Last Year's Lady Champions Defeat Christ Church Girls in Exhibition Game

A thrilling game of basketball was played last evening at the Trades Hall gymnasium before a large crowd of spectators, when St. Andrew's senior girls, winners of the ladies' League last season, upheld their reputation by winning a hard-fought struggle from the last Christ Church team by 24 to 15.

Several new players were used by either team, and all showed to good advantage. Dorothy Melville, Jean Burridge and Helinda Hamilton have seldom shown greater shooting ability, each having eight points to her credit. Dorothy Melville notched four baskets in the first period, while Jean Burridge showed remarkable speed in the second period, scoring eight points from difficult angles.

Jessie Widdowson and Iola Worthington, two new players this season, played well on the defence. The Christ Church girls almost tied the score on several occasions, playing a hard, aggressive game until the final whistle ended the encounter. Kathy Wellburn, Grace Wellburn and Marjorie Lock were very capable guards.

Judging from last night's game, the ladies' basketball league this season should be well oriented, as the Metropolitan and Fidelity girls also have very fast teams. Bill Erickson, who played last night's game, and the teams were:

Christ Church—Kathy Wellburn, Heather Richards, Florrie Gates, Marjorie Lock and Grace Wellburn.
St. Andrew's—Jean Burridge, Helinda Hamilton, Dorothy Melville, Iola Worthington and Jessie Widdowson.

UP-ISLAND SOCCER

Governing Board Disciplines Players by Non-payment—Entries Called for Blackman-Ker Series

NANAIMO, Oct. 9.—A meeting of the Up-Island District Governing Football Board was held Saturday evening, at which considerable business was disposed of.

The members of the board present were: N. Jevlin, president; A. E. Thorneycroft, vice-president; W. MacDonald, secretary; committee, J. Quinn, W. Hart, W. Brown and H. Morgan.

J. Milburn, of the Celtic Football Club, was suspended for one month, dating from October 7, for fighting the Celtic-Davenport game on September 25. Edmondson, of the Davenport, was also suspended for three months for a similar offence. The board intends to put this ungentlemanly conduct down on the field of play, and they hope the decision will be a lesson to other players.

It was also brought to the attention of the board that a considerable amount of profanity was going on among players in games. The board has notified the referees to report all such offenders, who will be dealt with accordingly.

Attention was also drawn to the fact that senior clubs' entries for the Blackman-Ker competition must be telegraphed to the secretary on or before October 15, accompanied by entrance fees.

This competition is open to First and Second Division clubs. The winners will be the contenders for the Province Cup, emblematic of the Provincial championship.

The management of the various clubs is requested to take notice of the clause of Rule 13 of the Up-Island constitution, which reads as follows: "Barriers of fences will be erected around playing ground at least six feet from the touch line, to avoid spectators from encroaching on the field of play throughout the duration of the game; also it is important that officers of all clubs make every effort to keep spectators out of the playing area during the interval."

HILLHURST PLAYERS COMING TO ISLAND

Two Members of Championship Soccer Team Will Join British Columbia Club

CALGARY, Oct. 9.—Calgary football fans had farewell with much regret to Sammy Gough and Fred Foster, two members of the Hillhurst club, Dominion, Provincial and Calgary soccer champions, when they leave tonight for British Columbia. Gough will go direct to Cumberland, while Foster may locate at Nanaimo. Both boys are farmers in this district, and, with harvesting over, they have a free hand until next spring, so that they intend to pass away the winter kicking the ball on the Pacific coast.

YANKEE PITCHERS UPSET THE DOPE

BAKE RUTH'S FAILURE ANOTHER BIG DISAPPOINTMENT

Official Averages Show Superiority for Giants in Every Department During the Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—The official batting and fielding averages for the world's series show the decisive superiority of the Giants over the Yankees in nearly every department of the game. The Yankees excelled in fielding, with a mark of .995 to .972 for the Giants, but in pitching, batting, base running and generalship, the world's champions had a clean superiority.

The Giants hit .309 as a team, collecting 80 hits and scoring 18 runs, while the Yankees batted only .203, making 32 hits for a total of 112 runs. Frisch and Emil Meusel were the hitting heroes, although Young and timely base came through with some of the Giants' hits, but in the out of 19 times at bat for an average of .474, had the best record of any player on either team. Meusel made his five singles count, and drove in seven of the winners' runs.

Hob Meusel and Walter Pipp, with six hits each, led the Yankees in batting. Ward had the distinction of hitting out of the fourth game, when he drove a home run, and came each time with no one on base.

Fielding Stars

Frisch and Groh were fielding stars—the former's play in every department of the game was a shining spot in the aggressive work of the Giants. The failure of Huggins' all-star pitching staff to come through, expected good, was the outstanding aspect of the pre-series "dope," but the failure of Babe Ruth to show any promise at bat whatever, was a big disappointment to Yankee followers. Ruth only got two hits out of seventeen times at bat, and seldom was able to get the ball out to a home run. The nearest he came to a home run was in the fourth game, when he drove a towering fly to right centre that Cunningham caught a few feet from the bleachers.

BIG LEAGUE PLAYERS WILL TOUR ORIENT

Stars of World's Series to Aid Promotion of Baseball in Lands Beyond the Sea

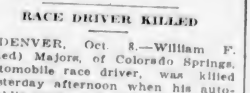

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—At least three members of the New York Giants, world's champions, and three of the New York Yankees, the losing team in the series that ended yesterday, will participate in the tour of the Orient, which has been organized to further the growth of baseball beyond the Pacific.

While the official roster has not yet been completed for the party that will go to the Orient, it is known that to sail from Vancouver, B.C., in time to reach Yokohama October 21, it is known that George Kelly, who hit won yesterday's game for the Giants; Arthur Nehf, the only pitcher to win two games in the series, and Emil Meusel, the slugging outfielder, will go from the Giants' squad.

From the Yankees will be Joe Bush, who pitched two losing games for his team, including that of yesterday; Walter Hoyt, the sensational boy pitcher; and Fred Hoffman, second-string catcher. Other players billed to go are Tom Griffith, of the Brooklyn club; Joe Sewell and Stephenson, of the Cleveland Indians; Amos Strunk and Falk, of the Chicago White Sox; and John Lavan, of the St. Louis Cardinals.

PORTVALE'S VICTORY IS NOTABLE SURPRISE

Liverpool Looming Up as the Team of the Season in Old Country Football.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Notable among the several big surprises of Saturday's league football game was Portvale's win on the grounds of Manchester United, who have not been particularly successful hitherto in their efforts to return to the first division.

Another surprise was Plymouth's successful raid on the record of Portsmouth, whose clean goal sheet was spoiled by two goals. Plymouth, who narrowly missed promotion last season, will now supplant Portsmouth at the head of the southern second of the third division.

Liverpool looks like being the outstanding team of the season. Their goal average is now 26 for and 11 against.

Another first league side scoring heavily lately in Sunderland, whose four goals against Cardiff was an impressive performance.

Tottenham suffered their first defeat away from home by Aston Villa. Arsenal alone of the London first league won Saturday, beating West Bromwich by a convincing score.

London's second league near the bottom of the table showed some improvement, although Fulham failed at Rhinfield.

Barnsley, leaders of the second division, strengthened their position by defeating their near rivals, Nottingham County.

Altogether 20 home teams were successful Saturday. Ten visiting teams won and there were 13 draws. Forty-three matches yielded goals. No fewer than 25 teams failed to score.

LADY SWIMMER BREAKS RECORD MADE BY MAN

Sybil Bauer Lowers Mark Set by Harold Krueger, of Honolulu, in Backstroke Events.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Oct. 9.—Swimmers here today are still talking of the three world records made by Sybil Bauer, of Chicago, at St. George Saturday night, including the feat of swimming a world record made by a man. In the 440-yard backstroke race, Miss Bauer won from Ethel McGary, New York, establishing world records in the 300, 400, 440 yards marks, the figures being, respectively, 4:19 2-5, 5:30 and 6:24 4-5. The old record was 6:28, held by Harold Krueger, of Honolulu. This was the first time in the history of swimming that a woman has beaten a world record held by a man.

Gertrude Ederle, of New York, is said to have established a world record by winning the 150-yard free style event in 1 minute 45 seconds. The former record was 1 minute 49 3-5 seconds, held by Charlotte Hoyle Clune, of New York, and 1:48, held by Hilda James, of England.

IS IT MARVEL S
OR IS IT MABEL?

THAT IS QUESTION PUT TO MR. JUSTICE MORRISON

And After Listening to the Evidence the Learned Judge Wishes He Were a Naval Architect

The metamorphosis of the forty-foot gas boat Marvel S into the forty-foot gas boat Mabel: the question as to whether the Marvel S had suffered a sea change into something more new and strange as the Mabel, or whether they were really and truly two different boats—these were some of the knotty problems presented to Mr. Justice Morrison yesterday, when the suit of Hall et al. vs. Drewitt came on for trial in the Supreme Court. At the end of a day given over to conflicting evidence as to strange occurrences on the raging waters of the Inner Harbor, during the stirring days when the shipyard lent activity to that now moribund scene, the learned judge decided that he would defer argument of counsel until after the adjournment of the Assize Court, which opens here this morning, and over which Mr. Justice Morrison will preside.

They Want Mabel. Richard T. Hall is suing Walter Drewitt, and claims the return of $1,500, the purchase price of the Mabel. He alleges that the Mabel was and is really the Marvel S; that it was not properly transferred to the custody of the defendant; and the latter had no right or title to sell the boat. Mr. Drewitt is appearing for the plaintiff; and Mr. H. W. Dewey for the defendant.

The plaintiff testified that he bought the Mabel from Drewitt, and paid him $1,500 for it. He took the boat to the harborage of the yacht club at Cadboro Bay, last June; only to have it almost immediately claimed as her property by Mrs. Asser, who said that the craft was nothing more nor less than her missing Marvel S, which she had left in the care of Mr. Price, of the Cameron-Genoa shipyard, during the war.

Mrs. Asser said that she had identified the boat as the Marvel S. She brought witnesses to corroborate her evidence, one of whom said that he had recognized some of the house work of the craft as the identical handiwork of himself in 1916. The work was unchanged, in his opinion; and the Mabel now lying on the ways of the yacht club was the Marvel S of his former experience. Mrs. Asser had left Marvel S in the shipyard when her husband joined the army.

Wreck of Marvel S

The defendant did not deny knowledge of the Marvel S. He had bought that boat, he testified, for the sum of $75. It was sold to him by a Mr. Bannerman, in whose charge it was left by Mr. Price. Mr. Bannerman had demanded payment of certain charges in respect of caring for the boat, and these had been refused by the Asser. The only question at issue, in the expressed opinion of the court, was as to whether the Mabel could be said to be the original Marvel S. The learned judge held that there was no doubt the transfer of Marvel S to Drewitt was an improper transaction. But if it could be shown that Mabel was not Marvel S at all, but a different boat, that would make a great difference in the settlement of the present action.

The defendant thought he could satisfy the court that the Mabel was a different entity from the Marvel S. He found the latter boat lying on the beach, he swore, with parts of her engine scattered in careless groups where the restless tides might daily wash them. She was in a sad pickle, he declared, her timbers wormeaten, and her planking stove in and decayed. He had bought her from Bannerman; and he had salvaged about one-third of her material for the construction of the new and authentic Mabel.

The Judge Will Look

He had put in a new keel, horn timbers, ribs, planking, ceiling and house joinery, he averred. He did not need plans to build a boat from, he said. Perhaps the resulting Mabel had finally resembled her ancient prototype, Marvel S, but she was indubitably new and a different boat. Witness was firm that no implication of the evidence for the plaintiff could establish that Marvel S might even be regarded as the disembodied ghost of Mabel. The defendant was confirmed in his evidence as to the un-seaworthiness and decay of Marvel S by several witnesses. Rebuttal evidence for the plaintiff, on the other hand, was equally insistent that in the form and comeliness of the Mabel, now lying at Cadboro Bay, all acquaintances of the old Marvel S could instantly discern the unchanged lineaments of that lost vessel. The learned judge decided that he would go out to Cadboro Bay, at the convenience of counsel, and view for himself the outward lines and interior economy of this much-debated craft. ANCHOR LOST BY SHIP AT STATION

BY PRESIDENT MCKINLEY

Lacking her starboard anchor, but otherwise in the best of condition after a voyage that was in part tempestuous, the Admiral liner President McKinley, Capt. G. T. January, was in port yesterday afternoon. The anchor was lost at William Head on the arrival of the vessel at quarantine. As it was being dropped into the bay, there was a snap and a rattle, and the anchor dropped so effectively that it is still there, although the McKinley is now in Seattle. The chain had become entangled about itself in some way, and under the weight of the iron hook when a few feet of chain had been paid out, a shackle snapped and the anchor plunged to the bottom.

By reaching quarantine at two o'clock, the American vessel completed the trans-Pacific passage only six hours behind the Empress of Canada, a performance which caused some pleasure on the Admiral liner inasmuch as the vessel is restricted as to speed.

We kept right on the tail of the speedy Empress of Canada which is supposed to be a faster ship by at least three and one-half knots," was the way it was expressed aboard the McKinley.

Better Than 17.5
As a matter of fact the McKinley averaged 18.3 knots for the trip, although Capt. January was not emulating the example of the master of the President Grant and flying in the face of the 17.5-knot regulations of the Shipping Board. Fine weather from Yokohama was responsible for the fine showing. The engines were turning throughout the entire voyage at the maximum number of revolutions permitted by the Shipping Board, giving the ship, in combination with smooth seas, better than eighteen knots an hour actual running. Her time for the Yokohama-Victoria voyage was approximately 9 days and 12 hours, the best she has yet done in trans-Pacific trips.

Too Much Typhoon
Leaving Manila for home September 17, the McKinley ran into a typhoon that made the world sit up and take notice. The vessel was given a severe buffeting, passengers were rolled from their bunks to the floor and buried under wandering furniture. Real sufferers were in the vicinity, however, radio reports being picked up by the McKinley indicative of the anxiety and distress the disturbance was causing. The Empress of Canada also reported this storm. The Canada was at Hong Kong at the time the McKinley was in the typhoon, and the dock to anchor in mid-harbor until it should abate.

In addition to a big cargo for the United States, the McKinley had cargo shipments to land at Victoria. Only half the local cargo was discharged here, however. Some thousands of pounds of silk and woolen goods, in order to make prompt connections with the waiting silk train at Seattle, the vessel cast off here shortly after five o'clock on a steam for the Sound. The balance of the Victoria freight will be shipped back by local steamer.

"CHOW" PROVIDER VETERAN VOYAGER

FOO HO FIRST CROSSED PACIFIC
THIRTY-NINE YEARS AGO

Food Aboard Clipper Was So Poor He Opened Missionary Chop House at Portland

A veteran Pacific traveler is Foo Ho, who was among the Chinese passengers arriving on the President McKinley yesterday. His first eastward crossing was made 39 years ago, on an American clipper, in 1873, from Hong Kong to Portland. In 48 days direct. The fare was only $40, but the "chow" was unpalatable, and the first thing Ho did on landing was to establish a restaurant in Portland for the benefit of the ill-fated Americans. This proved to be a missionary enterprise that has since become more than self-supporting. Known as the Billy Howe restaurant, his Portland establishment is famed across the border, and Ho is returning from the Orient to resume his managerial duties there, only in response to letters from Senator Lane, General Sumner and other prominent Americans urging him to return before they starve to death.

Quarantine inspection is not to the liking of Ho. In the old days, he says, before the advent of steam-driven vessels, if a Japanese or other doctor presumed to suggest an inspection of passengers or crew, the skipper would have surged a few tangled words and then have heaved the offending medic over the side.

Of the 36 adult first-class passengers on the McKinley, nearly half were Chinese. Fourteen were business men returning from vacations in their homeland. Mr. H. M. Chen was going to New York to attend Columbia University. He graduated from St. John's College, Shanghai, in June, and is to take his master's degree at Columbia, specializing in education. He expects to join the staff of Bowchow University next year.

STOWAWAY LANDED HERE BY CANADA

FILIPINO HID HIMSELF AWAY
ABOARD EMPIRESS LINER

Canadian Pacific Vessel in Port Yesterday Morning After Fast Passage From Yokohama

An extra passenger was landed here yesterday by the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Canada, one who, although he has no return ticket, is guaranteed return passage. He is a Filipino, and will be taken back to Manila when the Canada sails again. In the meantime he will receive careful attention from the immigration staff at the detention shed at the Outer Wharf. He slipped aboard at Hong Kong and was discovered when the liner was well on her voyage.

The Canada, after a smart passage of nine days, seven hours and thirty minutes, reached quarantine at 8 o'clock yesterday morning and docked at 10thth's two hours later. She carried a total of 265 passengers. Her being first class, 62, second, 44, third and 250. The vessel arrived here virtually on schedule at a mean speed of 18.8 knots.

Among the passengers were C. D. Harrington, of the China American Steamship Company, New York; Dr. Frank G. Gamewell, general secretary of the China Christian Educational Association, bound for New York on missionary work, with Mrs. Gamewell; Mr. P. E. Vase, of the British diplomatic service in China; Capt. J. C. Ross, of the British army, going through London, and Dr. N. Y. Noy, Indian temple worker, here from India to study prohibition conditions in the United States.

DIED AT SEA ON LINER MCKINLEY

VICTORIA BOY, NORMAN C.
BROWN, SUFFERS

Served Overseas With 86th Victoria Fusiliers—With American Navy—Member of Crew

Norman Chester Brown, a member of the crew of the Admiral liner President McKinley and Canadian overseas veteran, who left for the front with the 16th Fusiliers of Victoria early in the war, died of pneumonia aboard the vessel on the night of October 5, when she was still some days out from Victoria, inbound from Yokohama. Particulars of his death were learned with the arrival of the ship here yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Brown, who had been a water-tender on the McKinley since the second week in August, was taken ill nine days before his death. He made a game but unavailing struggle for life. He had been gassed twice when with the Canadian forces in France, and seemed to have been so weakened in his constitution as a result that he could not fight off the ravages of the cold which developed into pneumonia. Dr. A. V. Marlon, the ship's surgeon, and volunteer nurses from among the passengers, worked indefatigably to break up the attack, but all to no purpose.

The body was consigned to the sea the day after death. Mr. Engle, a member of the ship's company, read the Episcopal burial service and spoke a few words over the last mortal remains of his shipmate. Then after a few moments of prayer, the ship was stopped and the flag-draped bier was passed over the side as the vessel waited in last salute. The steamer forced ahead again, leaving another "brave heart asleep in the deep." The deceased was very popular with the crew, every member of which attended the funeral service, the only exception being those actually on duty at the time.

Although only 20 years of age, he had an exceptional record of service in the forces of two countries. Not only had he served when under age with the Canadians in France, but subsequent to his discharge from the C. E. F. incapacitated by gas, he

to your druggist

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in a colorless clear liquid (one drop does it) and in extra thin plaster. The action is the same.

Kyne, author of dozens of "best sellers" and one of the most popular of the Saturday Evening Post writers. Playing opposite Miss Cooper is Ralph Graves, and the remainder of the sterling cast consists of Lionel Belmore, Eugene Hammer, Maryland Morris, Beale Waters, W. J. Ferguson, Carolyn Rankin, Pat Rooney, John Herdman and Bruce Guerin. The story of "Kindred of the Dust" is laid in the remote Northwest—the home of drama and romance. Miss Cooper plays the role of "Nan of the Baddest Pile," a red-haired girl, with a voice of operatic calibre, who is forced by poverty to live in one of the squalid sections along Puget Sound, in the State of Washington. She meets Donald McKay, son of the millionaire lumberman, who owns the land on which she and her grandfather are living without legal right, and both fall in love. Parental interference interrupts their love affair, and it is many years before they are reunited and find peace and happiness. "Kindred of the Dust" is the type of picture which the patrons of this theatre prefer, and we are sure that you will enjoy every foot of it. The mere fact that it was written by Mr. Kyne and produced by Director Walsh, and that the leads are in the capable hands of Miss Cooper and Mr. Graves, are sufficient guarantee that it is worthwhile entertainment.

DOMINION For the first time in THEATRE many years Cecil B. DeMille copied the feminine convict fashions of the day in his new Paramount production, "Manslaughter." The DeMille wardrobe, under the direction of Clare West, has become world-famous for the original fashion creations which it has produced for each succeeding Cecil B. DeMille production. Fashion designers the world over have consulted the producer on matters of feminine style. In "Manslaughter," however, Mr. DeMille dresses the women of his cast in one part of the story according to the dictates of other fashion dictators—the prison authorities of the State of New York. In order that every detail of the costumes worn by the women prisoners in the penitentiary scenes of the picture might be absolutely correct, Cecil B. DeMille sent his assistant, Cullen Tate, to New York for genuine specimens of prison attire. As a result the clothes worn by Leatrice Joy, Lola Wilson and the other inmates of the penitentiary are authentic reproductions of the clothing worn by criminals serving sentence. Other technical details have received the same careful consideration. Thomas Meighan, Leatrice Joy, Lola Wilson, John Mitters, George Fawcett, Julia Payne, Edythe Chapman, Jack Mower, Casson Ferguson, Dorothy Cummings, Mickey Moore, James Neill and Sylvia Ashton head the cast of "Manslaughter," which was adapted by Jennie Macpherson from Alice Duer Miller's famous novel. The picture will be seen at the Dominion Theatre all this week. It is said to be well worth seeing.

CAPITOL Those who are admirers of the dainty Bebe Daniels, Paramount stars—and who are not—prepare to weep! For Miss Daniels "dies" in Penrhyn Stanlow's new Paramount production of "Pink Gods," the feature attraction at the Capitol Theatre this week. Miss Daniels and James Kirkwood are the featured players. This is the first time that Miss Daniels was ever called upon in the course of her screen work to apparently shuffle off her mortal coil as a climax to her impersonation in any picture. In "Pink Gods" she is a young woman who falls victim to the lure of diamonds, and at the close of the story she is injured in a dynamic explosion and dies in her husband's arms. This denouement might disappoint many screen fans were it not for the fact that the heart interest of the story centres about the love romance of the characters impersonated by Mr. Kirkwood and Anna Q. Nilsson. Miss Daniels admitted that she didn't know how to die, and she was obliged to rehearse the scene repeatedly in order to perform the feat with grace and artistry. The picture is said to be extremely interesting, the scenes being laid in the diamond district of South Africa. It is a picturization of Cynthia Stockley's fine novel, "Pink Gods and Blue Demons."

COLUMBIA Last night, at the Co- THEATRE, the picture began a three-day run of "The Men of Zanzibar," based on Richard Harding Davis' story of the same name. It is a Fox production starring William Russell. This is a film far above the ordinary in entertainment value and should play to a large patronage. The story is gripping, the direction of high calibre, the whole cast excellent, and the settings reflect accurately the atmosphere of the African East Coast.

where the action takes place. Zanzibar, chief outpost of East Africa, peopled by men of every color and race, is the background for a dramatic film creation that carries with it a mystery to be solved, and ends with a strong climax to a romance of distinct appeal. Those who have read Davis' story will not be disappointed; for those who have not read the tale it would be unfair to detract from their surprise and entertainment by setting forth its details here. But these people may be certain of rousing action and an unexpected, although very satisfactory, ending. The scenes are of Africa, and "The Men of Zanzibar" was made with more regard for realism than for the production cost. That is the secret of good pictures—care in giving correct details.

PLAYHOUSE If no other criterion THEATRE of the Bing Boys were obtainable, that of the fact that it was produced originally at the time when the outlook of the war was at its blackest, and all England was downcast, and yet it was unanimously voted one of the best things of its kind ever offered at the famous Leicester Square House, or even in London, would be sufficient. The Bing Boys is credited with having raised the spirits of thousands during those black days, and of turning the thoughts of its audiences to brighter things, even though the crash and boom of bombing Zeppelins punctuated some of the catchier numbers. At the Playhouse this week the Bing Boys will be repeated, commencing Wednesday, and a matinee will be included in the run on Saturday afternoon. It has been generally conceded that Messrs. Ernest Fitch and Reginald Hincks were never seen in better parts. Their comedy in this show is the kind that cannot be resisted, and the audience is in a continuous state of rippling laughter all the time.

ROYAL SPOTLIGHT
DIFFUSES HARD CASH

Leading Theatre Introduces Innovation From England, Which Proves Popular

Astronomers may crane their eyes in the pursuit of heavenly constellations, but for the time being, at any rate, a stellar eclipse is in the process of entertaining the public of Victoria, having originated under English skies, and bursting forth in this city to the accompaniment of $2.50. All who attended the performance last night at the Royal Victoria Theatre saw this phenomena, which is none other than the "Royal Spotlight" which plays at the commencement of each of the shows, on the heads of the audience, circling around in true "shooting star" fashion and finally resting on one of the audience.

To the lucky individual who obtains this unexpected earthly halo the attendant is given a ticket, which, when presented at the box office, is cashed to the tune of $2.50. Last night the two lucky "spotlighted" members of the large audience were Miss Jean Naysmith and Mr. Walter Lind, of Victoria. In England similar spotlights have been in use for some time past, and the introduction to this city of this novel and lucrative form of entertainment is distinctly creditable to the management of the Royal Victoria Theatre.

No content with one new feature in the theatre, another English idea has been transplanted here, and all motion pictures will be in future illuminated by exterior decorations in the lobby, which greatly adds to the attractiveness of the popular Royal Victoria.

On Saturday afternoon the children also stand a chance to bask in the rays of the spotlight, and "saccharine" kewpie lamp shades will be their award for this distinction.

EDITOR FINDS NO FRIENDS IN JAPAN

MR. E. L. CONN RETURNS ON PRESIDENT MCKINLEY

Cancels Contract With Japanese Anti-American Paper—Editor Brings Interesting Passengers

Japan and America can continue to drift apart, or wherever they are drifting, as far as Mr. E. L. Conn, of Washington, D.C., is concerned, Mr. Conn, who reached here yesterday among the passengers of the President McKinley from the Orient, has washed his hands of Japan.

In April Mr. Conn, owner and editor of the Foreign News Service of Washington, went to Japan with a contract to sell The Japan Times out of the financial hole into which it had got itself. He tackled his job with enthusiasm, full of ambition to bring America to understand Japan. But it was to no purpose. Four times in four months Mr. Conn severed relations with the Japanese journal, angered at its anti-American attitude. Each time the difference was adjusted. Last month, however, for the fifth time he cancelled the contract, and giving up his task as a hopeless one, took passage back home on the McKinley.

From Borneo

Another interesting passenger on the Admiral liner was Dr. D. G. Campbell, of Peterborough, N. S. He has been for six years in North Borneo, the land of the head hunters, practicing medicine. Head hunters in Borneo have disappeared, according to the doctor, to be replaced by settled communities and great rubber plantations. Five hundred square miles of rubber-growing area, composed Dr. Campbell's district. He was the only American doctor in that country, and reputed to be the foremost in skill and practice.

Sunday School Worker

Mr. W. C. Pearce, of New York, was returning to America after a trip around the world. He is secretary of the World Sunday School Association, which he refers to as "the Spiritual League of the Nations." During the past fourteen months he has been in twenty-nine different countries in connection with his work, having visited every continent except South America. While in Japan he started a movement to build a large Sunday school in Tokio.

Other passengers were Mr. Wm. Hanson, of Washington, D.C., special investigator of the U. S. War Department, returning from Manchuria and Siberia; Mr. E. Brunner, manager at Singapore of the J. E. Jaeger Company, of New York, who is spending two months in the United States on business; Mr. P. Gerli, one of the biggest silk men of Japan, going to New York on a pleasure trip; Mrs. H. Gilmore, head of the Far East Missionary Association; Mr. R. D. Wolcott, manager at Shanghai of the Chang Shu Salt Commission; Mr. J. W. Ziegler, of San Francisco, vice-president of the Winsor Publishing Company, manufacturers of text books and Bibles, and Mr. G. H. Orvik, of Napoleon, Ohio, owner of The Napoleon News and president of the Napoleon National Bank, who has been on a trip through the Orient on pleasure.

USE OF VICTORIA DOCK IS URGED

Chamber of Commerce Opposed to Government Plan of Repairing Ships at Prince Rupert

The reported decision of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine Ltd. to drydock its Oriental fleet at Prince Rupert when in need of repairs and overhauling met with a heated protest from the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. A committee composed of Messrs. H. C. Hall, K.C., H. C. Nicholas and W. M. Joel was appointed to take up the matter and urge the Government steamship line to make use of its own drydock at Esquimalt as well as that of Prince Rupert.

Mr. N. A. Yarrow brought the matter before the Chamber of Commerce. He alluded to the policy of the Merchant Marine to dock its vessels plying in the trans-Pacific trade at Prince Rupert, and said that this action would deprive Victoria and Esquimalt of a great deal of business. He illustrated what a loss would be incurred when he pointed out that 125,000 tons of Canadian Government ocean tonnage had so far been handled at the Esquimalt basin.

"When it is realized that these vessels obtain nearly all their cargo at Victoria and Vancouver, it is rather curious that half the Pacific fleet should be sent to Prince Rupert for repairs, and not to a port close to the shipping centres," said Mr. Yarrow. "If the drydock at Prince Rupert was the only one owned by the Government on this Coast the attitude of the Merchant Marine might be understood, but the Esquimalt dock is just as much the property of the Government as any other."

Business Loss
Mr. C. P. W. Schwengers stated that the diversion of repair work to the northern port would also mean a loss to Victoria supply houses.

Captain George McGregor outlined some of the disadvantages of Prince Rupert as a ship repair point, stating that whenever it had a big job men had to be sent up from the southern part of the Province. He said that Ocean Falls was the port farthest north at which the Government liners called for trans-Pacific freight.

Ald. A. E. Todd held that the attitude of the Canadian Government transportation system would be reflected by the personnel of the Board, and he believed that Victoria should fight for representation for Vancouver Island on the board of directors of the Canadian National Railways.

Members answered this by saying that the directors would have little influence on the board, and that the president would be virtually supreme.

Borden's EAGLE BRAND CONDENSED MILK

Rich Cream That Will Keep Sweet

Keepsweet Milk Good For Children

Keepsweet Milk, like Keepsweet Cream, is the pure, whole, unadulterated product. It keeps sweet, because of its 100% purity and absolute freedom from germ life.

It is a wonderful food for babies, growing children, invalids or the sick. In fact, it is the safest milk that can be recommended.

Keepsweet Milk is delicious in flavor, having none of that smoky unpleasant taste so often experienced in canned milks.

Do not add water or sweetening. Simply punch two holes in the top of the container, empty all the milk into a jug and use. Keepsweet Cream, mixed with Keepsweet Milk produces a delicious light table cream of about 11 per cent butter fat—the "top-of-the-bottle" grade—and cheaper than you can buy raw cream.

All grocers sell Keepsweet Milk.

YOU'LL be simply amazed when you try Keepsweet. It's cream! Rich, pure, sweet, natural cow's cream! Not milk, mind you, but the finest cow's cream and it's put up in sanitary cans. In fact, it is the first and only product in a sanitary can that the Dominion Government permits to be labelled "Cream." It is the sensation of the year.

It is not Condensed
It is not Evaporated
It is not Medicated

Keepsweet is whole, natural, liquid cream, just as it comes from the cow, only it's purified to the last degree. The remarkable thing about it is that it will keep sweet all summer long. Without ice, without special care, it will keep sweet and pure and wholesome in its sanitary can for an indefinite period.

No preservatives of any kind are put into Keepsweet Cream. Absolutely nothing is put into it and absolutely nothing is taken from it.

Pour from the Can and Use

You simply punch two holes in the top of the can and empty the cream into a cream jug. Then use it as you would raw cream—on porridge or cereals, in coffee, cocoa or tea, on puddings or fruit—in fact, any place where you would use ordinary raw cream. Don't add water. It's all ready to use.

Of course, once you've opened the can, Keepsweet requires the same care as ordinary cream.

The Flavor is Delicious

You will be captivated by the delightfully rich flavor of Keepsweet Cream. It has the tang of Devon! It contains a larger percentage of butterfat than the average table cream and it is safer to use, because it contains no germs. They were all killed when the cream was sterilized.

Inexpensive, Too

Compare the price of Keepsweet with ordinary cream and in most localities you will find the prices almost identical.

But the great thing about this really marvelous product is that it will keep sweet for months on end. Violent thunderstorms can't affect it—nor can terrific summer heat.

A Godsend in an Emergency

There comes a time almost every day in every home when all the cream is used up, when the ice man fails to call, when the ice melts away and the cream sours—when a jug of cream is badly needed.

That's the time when Keepsweet comes into its own! Rich, pure, delicious in flavor, it is all ready for the table.

Thrifty, efficient housewives from now on will keep half a dozen cans of Keepsweet always handy. Many have already adopted Keepsweet Cream for permanent table use. They enjoy its delightful flavor and richness, and they like to have pure, sweet cream always handy.

How it is Done

At our creameries away out in the quiet country we receive the milk from rigidly inspected dairies. We at once separate the cream from the milk. We first pasteurize the cream, then homogenize it and after canning, sterilize it, container and all. It is thus made literally pure, as all disease germs are killed.

Pasteurizing temporarily prevents fermentation and souring, homogenizing makes the cream more readily digestible, and the final sterilization destroys all germ life. Thus the cream will keep all summer long in all its original freshness and rich flavor.

Order from your grocer. He will supply you. Don't be afraid to order half a dozen tins, because after you've had one sip you'll be glad you ordered a supply.

Grocers—The Dominion Government has ruled that as Keepsweet Cream is "true to its name" and in nowise an evaporated product, being just pure, natural cream, it has always been exempt from the Sales Tax. Your wholesaler will supply you.

LUMBER COMPANY EXTENDS OPERATIONS

Site Being Cleared At Campbell River for Headquarters of International Timber Corporation

CAMPBELL RIVER, Oct. 9.—Clearing operations on the land recently purchased from the Indians near the mouth of the Campbell River are now going forward and it is evidently the intention of the International Timber Co. to extend the plant here to much larger dimensions. Already the office of the big logging concern have been moved from their camp to their building on the Island Highway near the new townsite of Campbell. It is understood that a roundhouse and machine shop will be erected in the vicinity of the boom camp and that a number of dwellings for their married employees may be among the extensions planned. New camps are being opened and railroad connections are being made so that the output of the company will be greatly increased in a short time. Within a few months the townsite of Campbell has changed considerably for the better as the installation of a saw mill and boat building plant has caused much activity in the locality. Three new dwellings have been built within the past month and a number of others will be finished before the new year.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE ARRANGES DEBATE

Shawinigan Lake and Cobble Hill Speakers Discuss Women of This Period and of Long Ago.

COBBLE HILL, Oct. 9.—The Women's Institute of Cobble Hill and Shawinigan Lake held a very interesting meeting in the Community Hall last Wednesday afternoon, about fifty being present. Debate was held between the two Institutes, the subject being "The Girl of Fifty Years Ago versus The Girl of Today." Shawinigan Lake supported the modern young lady and Mrs. Weatton read a speech on her behalf, while Cobble Hill preferred grandmother's girlhood, and Mrs. McDonald read a well-prepared case in her favor. After a great deal of open debate the judges, Mesdames Taggart, Keene and Gooch, gave a decision in favor of the girl of today. Mrs. C. Macklin was dressed to represent a modern girl of a rather flashy type, and Misses G. Musgrave and P. Keene wore dresses of fifty years ago. Mrs. Wythe, of Shawinigan, presided. Tea was served by Mesdames Lockwood and T. P. Barry, assisted by Mesdames Steine, Hughes and McMillan and Miss McIntosh.

Mrs. T. P. Barry has been appointed to represent Cobble Hill at the Women's Institute convention to be held in Victoria next week.

UNION OIL COMPANY OPENS NANAIMO PLANT

NANAIMO, Oct. 9.—The work of construction on the branch plant of the Union Oil Company in Nanaimo has been completed and the firm commenced business this morning in the new premises on Comox Road, the factory being one of the largest and most complete of its kind in the province. The plant consists of an office in Comox Road, a large corrugated warehouse fronting on the E. & N. Railway, with two compartments, one for storage of barrel and cases, and the other for drums, with a filling rack for the filling of barrels with kerosene, distillate and gasoline, and other lubricating oils.

The storage facilities of the plant include five tanks, three of which have a capacity of 16,000 gallons, while the remaining two each hold 12,000 gallons, these tanks being connected with the pumping station and the filling tanks with three-inch pipes. For the distribution of its wares the company has three large National trucks, one weighing three and a half tons, and having a capacity of 3,000 gallons, a second weighing two and a half tons, with a capacity of 600 gallons, the third truck weighing two and a half tons, being utilized for the delivery of barrels and case goods. A spur from the main line of the E. & N. Railway has been constructed alongside of the plant.

The new plant will be under the management of Mr. J. D. Galloway, of this city, and all the employees will be local men.

RECORD OF TOURISTS AT CAMPBELL RIVER

CAMPBELL RIVER, Oct. 9.—Early in June last, at the suggestion of Mr. J. P. Lewis, road foreman for this district, the Ex-Service Club of Campbell River placed a visitors' book in the hands of one of the huge cedars that throw its shadow over the tumbling waters of the now famous Campbell River Falls, for the purpose of gaining some idea of the number of people who visit this charming spot annually. It was apparent that some proof of the popularity of the great attraction was necessary to impress upon the authorities the necessity of providing a good road leading from the Island Highway to the Falls. During the three months of June, July and August no less than 1,831 names were inscribed in this book, the visitors ranking all the way from Cairo, Egypt, to Shanghai, China. This large number of tourists in so short a period, and especially when forest fires and smoke were prevalent throughout the whole of Vancouver Island, is a good index of what may be expected under more favorable circumstances. Many visitors, besides inscribing their names, made numerous comments on the beauty of the scenery and Falls, and gave some plain spoken expressions on the road connecting the spot with the main highway. People from all parts of the United States and Eastern Canada were enthusiastic in their praise of this delightful place, and hoped that the authorities would recognize the importance of a better road.

Mr. Harry T. Barnes, manager for Rithet Consolidated, Ltd., of Victoria, accompanied by Mrs. Barnes, visited Campbell River on Thursday.

The following pupils of Mr. R. W. Booth, teacher of piano and theory, last night, neither side yielding a single concession and both determined to see the fight through to a finish.

The finish has already been reached, members of the School Board declared yesterday.

They stated that their ultimatum to close the schools for the remainder of the year unless the Chinese students attended on Monday would be put into effect and that the Board would not recede from the position it took last week.

The Chinese are just as firm in their resolve to oppose the so-called segregation policy of the School Board. They established pickets at all the schools likely to be attended by Chinese yesterday and these were effective in preventing the attendance of all but five Chinese pupils, who went to the King's Road School.

Announcement of plans for the establishment of a Chinese school, where the Chinese language will be taught exclusively, will probably be made this week.

The School Board will meet tomorrow night and will pass a resolution declaring as "habitual truants" all the Chinese children who took part in the boycott. This will automatically lead to suspension for the rest of the term.

The letter written to the Board by the Chinese, outlining several suggestions for the education of their children in company with the whites, had not reached the School Board yesterday, according to Secretary W. F. C. Pope, although it was published in The Colonist on Sunday. Trustees intimated that this letter would probably be ignored.

AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF WAITING

One of Eight Prospective Brides From England Will Marry Sweetheart of Early Days.

MONTREAL, Oct. 9.—Bound for Vancouver to marry a girlhood sweetheart, whom she had not seen for 25 years, Mrs. Ada Wakefield, of London, England, was one of a party of eight prospective brides who landed here last night from the White Star Dominion liner Canopic. Her arrival in the West will end a romance which continued in spite of the fact that both parties married in the interval. Each is now free, and it was the recent mutual discovery of this fact that caused a renewal of the old correspondence and the invitation to Mrs. Wakefield from John Thompson, a business man of Vancouver, to make a new home in the Western city.

SCHOOL DEADLOCK STILL CONTINUES

Intimidation Prevented Attendance of Chinese Students; Board Officials Believe

Both parties in the Chinese school controversy were still in a deadlock last night, neither side yielding a single concession and both determined to see the fight through to a finish.

The finish has already been reached, members of the School Board declared yesterday.

They stated that their ultimatum to close the schools for the remainder of the year unless the Chinese students attended on Monday would be put into effect and that the Board would not recede from the position it took last week.

The Chinese are just as firm in their resolve to oppose the so-called segregation policy of the School Board. They established pickets at all the schools likely to be attended by Chinese yesterday and these were effective in preventing the attendance of all but five Chinese pupils, who went to the King's Road School.

Announcement of plans for the establishment of a Chinese school, where the Chinese language will be taught exclusively, will probably be made this week.

The School Board will meet tomorrow night and will pass a resolution declaring as "habitual truants" all the Chinese children who took part in the boycott. This will automatically lead to suspension for the rest of the term.

The letter written to the Board by the Chinese, outlining several suggestions for the education of their children in company with the whites, had not reached the School Board yesterday, according to Secretary W. F. C. Pope, although it was published in The Colonist on Sunday. Trustees intimated that this letter would probably be ignored.

GANGES HARVEST FESTIVAL

GANGES HARBOR, Oct. 9.—The harvest festival was held last Sunday morning at St. Paul's Church, Ganges, when the Rev. A. W. Collins preached and took the service. Mr. A. Osenham officiated at the organ. The church was crowded to capacity, and many of those who intended to be present could not gain admittance owing to the crowd. The church was prettily decorated with flowers, fruit and vegetables, and especially beautiful was the effect of the grain of which there was a plentiful supply, mixed with the autumn leaves. During the service Mr. Collins dedicated to St. Paul's Church two alms bags, which had been presented to him in London.

AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF WAITING

One of Eight Prospective Brides From England Will Marry Sweetheart of Early Days.

MONTREAL, Oct. 9.—Bound for Vancouver to marry a girlhood sweetheart, whom she had not seen for 25 years, Mrs. Ada Wakefield, of London, England, was one of a party of eight prospective brides who landed here last night from the White Star Dominion liner Canopic. Her arrival in the West will end a romance which continued in spite of the fact that both parties married in the interval. Each is now free, and it was the recent mutual discovery of this fact that caused a renewal of the old correspondence and the invitation to Mrs. Wakefield from John Thompson, a business man of Vancouver, to make a new home in the Western city.

NOTED AUTHOR IS LABOR CANDIDATE

H. G. Wells Is Nominated for London University in Elections for the British House of Commons

LONDON, Oct. 9.—H. G. Wells, the noted author, who has been nominated as the labor candidate for London University for the House of Commons in the general elections, is a graduate of the university. He has been understood for some time to have been favorable to accepting the nomination, and his selection is no surprise. Wells has not a very high opinion of his own speaking powers. It is said, but in the British House of Commons a speaker's matter is much more important than the manner of his delivery.

In the last general elections the labor candidate for London University, Sydney Webb, polled 2,141 votes to 2,810 for Sir Philip Magnus, the successful candidate, but on that occasion there were three other candidates who polled an aggregate of about 2,500.

STOCKS CONTINUE UPWARD COURSE

Special Securities Are Carried Higher by New Demonstrations—Government's New Issue of Bonds

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Resumption of the upward movement of prices in today's stock market was given impetus by another series of demonstrations in special stocks, several of which were carried to new high records.

Standard Oil of New Jersey was the individual feature, establishing a new peak price at 246 1/2, with an advance of 17 points. The day's sales exceeded 70,000 shares. United States Steel common was another favorite, touching 103 1/4 and closing at 107 3/4, a new gain of 1 1/4, the sales exceeding 100,000 shares. Bidding up of United States Steel also was influenced by reports of a large increase in the monthly statement of unfilled orders, which will be made public at noon tomorrow.

Texas Company and associated oils were pushed to new peak prices, while Mexican Petroleum registered a net gain of more than 3 points.

Italy was relatively dull and the changes generally were unimportant.

Continuation of favorable trade reports caused further activity in motor shares, Studebaker climbing 4 points; Chandler, 1 1/2; Pierce Arrow 1/2, 1, and General Motors fractionally.

Total sales, 1,326,000 shares.

Shifting of loans because of Government requirements was responsible for the marking up of the call money rate to 6 per cent, after opening and renewing at 4 1/4. Reports were current in the financial district that banks which had obtained temporary use of funds sent over here to meet the interest payment on the British debt, October 16, were calling loans to repay the loans to the British fiscal agents.

Foreign exchange rates were weak, demand sterling dropping 1-4 of a cent and the continental rates 1 to 19 points. German marks fell to 3 3/4 cents a hundred, another low mark.

Interest in today's bond market centered on the Government's $100,000,000 new 4 1/4 per cent issue, which sold above par on the New York curb market, where it was traded in on a "when issued" basis. Early sales were at 109 1/2-3, and later the premium ranged from 1-1/4 to 1-1/2 cent.

Total subscriptions for the new issue probably will reach $1,800,000, according to officials of the local Federal Reserve Bank.

This estimate was based, in part, on an inquiry made by the reserve bank among large New York institutions, which are expected to subscribe for a major part of the offering.

Competition of the new bonds with existing Government issues were reflected in the weakness of the Liberty 4 1/4 series, the decline running from 10 to 24 points. The Liberty 3 1/2's slipped back 1 point and the uncallable Victory bonds 4.

The called Victory bonds registered a net gain of 14 points.

Foreign bonds were irregular. French 5's, Czechoslovakian 5's, Chinese Government 5's, and Lyons 5's, each moved up a point, while holders of 1 to 3 1/4 took place in Belgian 5's, United States Steamship of Cope, Mexican 5's, and Cuba Government 4 1/2's.

Total sales, par value, were $14,000,000.
